(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

5. Courts to be open to the public, with exceptions.—(1) Except where otherwise provided by law, the proceedings in every court in all criminal cases and the trial of all defended civil actions shall be carried on in open court, and recorded by the presiding officer or other officer appointed to record such proceedings.

(2) The court may in any case, in the interests of good order or public morals, direct that a civil trial shall be held with closed doors, or that (with such exceptions as the court may direct) minors or the public generally shall not be permitted to be present thereat.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 1 (a) of Act No. 91 of 1977 and by s. 3 of Act No. 132 of 1993.]

(3) If any person present at any civil proceedings in any court disturbs the peace or order of the court, the court may order that person to be removed and detained in custody until the rising of the court, or, if in the opinion of the court peace cannot be otherwise secured, may order the court room to be cleared and the doors thereof to be closed to the public.

[Sub-s. (4) amended by s. 6 of Act No. 40 of 1952 and deleted by s. 1 (b) of Act No. 91 of 1977.]

6. Medium to be employed in proceedings.—(1) Either of the official languages may be used at any stage of the proceedings in any court and the evidence shall be recorded in the language so used.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 7 of Act No. 40 of 1952.]

(2) If, in a criminal case, evidence is given in a language with which the accused is not in the opinion of the court sufficiently conversant, a competent interpreter shall be called by the court in order to translate such evidence into a language with which the accused professes or appears to the court to be sufficiently conversant, irrespective of whether the language in which the evidence is given, is one of the official languages or of whether the representative of the accused is conversant with the language used in the evidence or not.

7. Public access to records and custody thereof.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 7A and the rules the records of the court, other than a record with reference to which a direction has been issued under section 153 (2) or 154 (1) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, or with reference to which the provisions of section 154 (2) (a) or 154 (3) of that Act apply, shall be accessible to the public under supervision of the clerk of the court at convenient times and upon payment of the fees prescribed from time to time by the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Finance, and for this purpose and for all other purposes the records of any magistrate's court which has at any time existed within the Republic, shall be deemed to be the records of the court of the district in which the place where such court was held is situated, and such records shall be preserved at the seat of magistracy of that district for such periods as the Director-General: Justice may from time to time determine: Provided that the said Director-General may order that the records of a court for any regional division shall be so preserved at such a place or places within that division as he may from time to time determine: Provided further that payment of such fees shall not be required from any person who satisfies the magistrate of the district where the records of the court are preserved, or any judicial officer designated by the said magistrate from among the members of his staff, that he desires access to the records of the court in connection with research for academic purposes.

(1) Subject to the provisions of section 7A and the rules, the records of the court, other than a record with reference to which a direction has been issued under section 153 (2) or 154 (1) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, or with reference to which the provisions of section 154 (2) (a) or 154 (3) of that Act apply, shall be accessible to the public under supervision of the clerk of the court at convenient times and upon payment of the fees prescribed from time to time by the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Finance, and for this purpose and for all other purposes the records of any court which has at any time existed within the Republic, shall be deemed to be the records of the court of the district in which the place where such court was held is situated, and such records shall be preserved at the seat of magistracy or civil court, as the case may be, of that district for such periods as the Director-General: Justice may from time to time determine: Provided that the said Director-General may order that the records of a regional court, a civil court of a civil division or a family court shall be so preserved at such a place or places within that regional, civil or family division, as the case may be, as he may from time to time determine: Provided further that payment of such fees shall not be required from any person who satisfies any judicial officer of the court in respect of which the records are desired that he desires access to the records of the court in connection with research for academic purposes.

CHAPTER II JUDICIAL OFFICERS

8. Before whom courts to be held.—Every court held under this Act shall be presided over by a judicial officer appointed in the manner provided by this Act.

9. Appointment of judicial officers.—(1) (a) Subject to the Magistrates Act, 1993, and section 10 of this Act, the Minister may appoint for any district or sub-district a magistrate, one or more additional magistrates or one or more assistant magistrates and for every regional division a magistrate or magistrates.

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 17 of Act No. 90 of 1993 and by s. 1 (a) of Act No. 19 of 2010.]

(aA) The Minister may, in a particular case or generally and subject to such directions as he or she may deem fit, delegate the power conferred upon him or her by paragraph (a) to the Director-General of his or her department or another officer of that department with the rank of director or an equivalent or higher rank or a magistrate at the head of a regional division or a person occupying the office of chief magistrate, including an acting chief magistrate.

[Para. (aA) inserted by s. 11 of Act No. 29 of 1974 and substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 28 of 1981, by s. 3 (a) of Act No. 104 of 1996 and by s. 3 (a) of Act No. 66 of 1998.]

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 3 (b) of Act No. 66 of 1998 and deleted by s. 1 (b) of Act No. 19 of 2010.]

[Para. (c) substituted by s. 24 (1) (a) of Act No. 94 of 1974 and deleted by s. 3 of Act No. 31 of 2008.]

(d) A magistrate, an additional magistrate or an assistant magistrate of a district or sub-district may at the same time also be a magistrate, an additional magistrate or an assistant magistrate of another district.

[Para. (d) added by s. 24 (1) (b) of Act No. 94 of 1974.]

(1A)

[Sub-s. (1A) inserted by s. 8 (1) of Act No. 102 of 1972 and deleted by s. 2 of Act No. 34 of 1986.]

(2) (a) A person appointed as judicial officer under this section shall, before commencing with his or her functions in terms of this Act for the first time, take an oath or make an affirmation subscribed by him or her, in the form set out below:

"I,

do hereby swear/solemnly affirm that in my capacity as a judicial officer I will be faithful to the Republic of South Africa, will uphold and protect the Constitution and the human rights entrenched in it, and will administer justice to all persons alike without fear, favour or prejudice, in accordance with the Constitution and the law."

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 4 of Act No. 53 of 1970 and by s. 1 of Act No. 62 of 2000.]

(b) Any such oath or affirmation shall be taken or made in open court before the most senior available magistrate of the district concerned or a justice of the peace who shall at the foot thereof endorse a statement of the fact that it was taken or made before him and of the date on which it was so taken or made and append his signature thereto.

(3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the Minister, after consultation with the head of the court concerned, may appoint any appropriately qualified and fit and proper person to act—

- (a) in the place of any magistrate, additional magistrate or assistant magistrate who is not available; or
- (b) in any vacant office of magistrate; or
- (c) as a magistrate in addition to any magistrate of a regional division or a district.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 3 (b) of Act No. 104 of 1996, by s. 3 (c) of Act No. 66 of 1998 and by s. 1 of Act No. 28 of 2003.]

(4) (a) A magistrate at the head of a regional division or a person occupying the office of chief magistrate, including an acting chief magistrate authorized thereto in writing by the Minister, may—

- (i) whenever a magistrate additional magistrate or assistant magistrate is for any reason unavailable to carry out the functions of his or her office; and
- (ii) in consultation with the Minister or an officer in the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development designated by the Minister, temporarily appoint any competent person in the place of the magistrate concerned.

(b) An appointment in terms of paragraph (a) remains valid for the duration of the unavailability of the magistrate in question, or for a period not exceeding five consecutive court days, whichever period is the shortest.

(c) Any person appointed in terms of paragraph (a) may—

- (i) upon the expiry of the appointment in terms of paragraph (b); and
- (ii) if the magistrate in whose place the appointment has been made, is still unavailable, be reappointed once only in terms of paragraph (a) in the place of that magistrate.

[Sub-s. (4) substituted by s. 3 (b) of Act No. 104 of 1996, by s. 3 (c) of Act No. 66 of 1998 and by s. 1 of Act No. 28 of 2003.]

(5) (a) Any person appointed in terms of subsection (3)—

- (i) holds that office for a period determined by the Minister at the time of the appointment, but the period so determined may not exceed 12 months and;

[Sub-para. (i) substituted by s. 1 (a) of Act No. 24 of 2015.]

- (ii) may be reappointed to that office in terms of subsection (3).

(b) The Minister must cause Parliament and the Magistrates Commission to be informed whenever any vacancy in the office of a magistrate has remained unfilled for a continuous period exceeding 12 months.

[Sub-s. (5) deleted by s. 2 of Act No. 34 of 1986, added by s. 3 (c) of Act No. 104 of 1996 and substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 28 of 2003. Para. (b) substituted by s. 1 (b) of Act No. 24 of 2015.]

(6) Any person appointed in terms of subsection (3) or (4) is also deemed to have been so appointed in respect of any period during which he or she is necessarily engaged in connection with the disposal of any proceedings—

- (a) in which he or she has participated as such a magistrate, including an application for leave to appeal in respect of such proceedings; and
- (b) which have not yet been disposed of at the expiry of the period for which he or she was appointed.

[Sub-s. (6) added by s. 1 of Act No. 28 of 2003.]

(7) (a) A magistrate appointed in terms of subsection (1) who presided in criminal proceedings in which a plea was recorded in accordance with section 106 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), shall, notwithstanding his or her subsequent vacation of the office of magistrate at any stage, dispose of those proceedings and, for such purpose, shall continue to hold such office in respect of any period during which he or she is necessarily engaged in connection with the disposal of those proceedings—

(i) in which he or she participated, including an application for leave to appeal in respect of such proceedings; and

(ii) which were not disposed of when he or she vacated the office of magistrate.

(b) The proceedings contemplated in paragraph (a) shall be disposed of at the court where the proceedings were commenced, unless all parties to the proceedings agree unconditionally in writing to the proceedings being resumed in another court mentioned in the agreement.

(c) If the magistrate contemplated in paragraph (a) has subsequently been appointed as a Constitutional Court judge or judge as defined in section 1 of the Judges' Remuneration and Conditions of Employment Act, 2001 (Act No. 47 of 2001)—

(i) he or she shall only be entitled to the benefits to which such a Constitutional Court judge or judge is entitled as contemplated in the Judges' Remuneration and Conditions of Employment Act, 2001, in respect of any period taken to dispose of the proceedings as contemplated in paragraph (a); and

(ii) the period taken to dispose of the proceedings as contemplated in paragraph (a) is deemed to be active service for purposes of the Judges' Remuneration and Conditions of Employment Act, 2001.

(d) If the magistrate contemplated in paragraph (a) has subsequently not been appointed as a Constitutional Court judge or judge as contemplated in paragraph (c), he or she is entitled to such benefits as determined by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette.

[Para. (d) substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 8 of 2017.]

(e) A magistrate contemplated in paragraph (a) who is, in the opinion of the Minister—

(i) unfit to continue holding the office of magistrate for purposes of disposing of the proceedings in question; or

(ii) incapacitated and is not able to dispose of the proceedings in question due to such incapacity, may be exempted by the Minister from the provisions of this subsection, after consultation with the Chief Justice.

[S. 9 amended by s. 8 of Act No. 40 of 1952, by s. 17 of Act No. 50 of 1956, by s. 38 of Act No. 68 of 1957, by s. 24 of Act No. 93 of 1962, by s. 1 of Act No. 19 of 1963 and by s. 1 of Act No. 48 of 1965 and substituted by s. 2 of Act No. 8 of 1967. 9ter. Establishment of Senior Civil and Family Magistrates Appointments Advisory Board.—

(1) The Minister shall establish a board, to be known as the Senior Civil and Family Magistrates Appointments Advisory Board, to determine from time to time the suitability of persons for appointment as senior civil and family magistrates and to advise the Minister as to the suitability of such persons for appointment as senior civil and family magistrates.

(2) The board referred to in subsection (1) shall consist of—

(a) the Director-General: Justice, who shall be the chairman thereof;

(b) the Chief Director: Justice College;

(c) The Chief Family Advocate;

(d) (i) two senior civil magistrates;

(ii) two family magistrates; and

(iii) two judicial officers designated in terms of section 12 (6) to exercise administrative control over civil, senior civil and family magistrates, appointed by the Minister after consultation with the Magistrates Commission established by section 2 of the Magistrates Act, 1993; and

(e) one advocate and one attorney nominated by the General Council of the Bar of South Africa and the Association of Law Societies of the Republic of South Africa, respectively.

(3) The board referred to in subsection (1) shall designate one of the members as the vice-chairman thereof.

(4) The provisions of section 9bis (3) to (6), inclusive, shall mutatis mutandis apply to the meetings of the board referred to in subsection (1).

(5) (a) For the purposes of the initial functioning of the board referred to in subsection (1), the board shall consist of the members referred to in subsection (2) (a) to (c), inclusive, and (e), as well as six judicial officers appointed by the Minister for a period not exceeding two years.

(b) The Minister may at any time before the expiry of the period for which a judicial officer has been appointed in terms of paragraph (a), appoint a senior civil or family magistrate or another judicial officer in the place of the first-mentioned judicial officer.

(Pending amendment: S. 9ter to be inserted by s. 8 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

9quat. Appointment of certain practitioners as civil, senior civil or family magistrates in acting capacity.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 10 (b), the Minister may, if he deems it desirable that an advocate or an attorney be appointed, whether in general or in a specific case, to act as civil, senior civil or family magistrate of a district or civil or family division, as the case may be—

- (a) in the place of any civil, senior civil or family magistrate; or
- (b) in addition to the civil, senior civil and family magistrates of such district or civil or family division, as the case may be; or
- (c) in any vacancy in such district or civil or family division, as the case may be, so appoint such advocate or attorney for such period as the Minister may determine, from persons whose names have been submitted for that purpose by the board referred to in section 9ter (1), after consultation with the General Council of the Bar of South Africa and the Association of Law Societies of the Republic of South Africa.

(2) Any appointment as judicial officer made under subsection (1) shall be deemed to have been made also in respect of any period during which the person appointed is necessarily engaged in connection with the disposal of proceedings in which he has taken part as such judicial officer and which have not been disposed of at the expiry of the period for which he was appointed or, having been disposed of before or after such expiry, are re-opened.

(3) The provisions of section 9 (2) shall mutatis mutandis apply in relation to a person appointed under subsection (1).

(4) The Minister may, with the concurrence of the Minister of State Expenditure, determine the remuneration and allowances and the method of calculation of such remuneration and allowances payable to a person appointed under subsection (1) for services rendered.

(5) (a) Any person appointed under subsection (1) may resign by notice in writing to the Minister.

(b) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the board referred to in section 9ter (1) revoke the appointment of any person appointed under subsection (1).

(Pending amendment: S. 9quat to be inserted by s. 8 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

10. Qualifications for appointment of judicial officers.—Subject to the provisions of the Magistrates Act, 1993 (Act No. 90 of 1993), any appropriately qualified woman or man who is a fit and proper person may be appointed as a magistrate, an additional magistrate or a magistrate of a regional division.

[S. 10 substituted by s. 4 of Act No. 66 of 1998 and by s. 2 of Act No. 19 of 2010.]

10. Qualifications for appointment as judicial officer.—Subject to the provisions of section 11—

- (a) a person who has not before the commencement of section 9 of the Magistrates' Courts Amendment Act, 1993, held a substantive appointment as magistrate shall not hold an appointment as magistrate or civil magistrate and a person who has not before the said commencement held a substantive appointment as assistant magistrate shall not hold an appointment as magistrate or civil magistrate, unless in either case he has passed the diploma iuris examination or an examination deemed by the Magistrates Commission established by section 2 of the Magistrates Act, 1993, to be equivalent thereto or of a higher standard;

- (b) no person shall be appointed as a regional, senior civil or family magistrate unless he is a magistrate, additional magistrate or civil magistrate or an advocate or attorney who has satisfied all the requirements for the degree of baccalaureus legum of a university in the Republic or has passed the diploma legum examination or an examination deemed by the Magistrates Commission mentioned in paragraph (a) to be equivalent or of a higher standard, and the board referred to in section 9bis (1) or 9ter (1), as the case may be, has advised the Minister that he is suitable for appointment as regional, senior civil or family magistrate, as the case may be: Provided that no person who does not satisfy all the requirements for the degree of baccalareus legum, shall be appointed as a family magistrate.

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(4) In addition to any other jurisdiction conferred upon a family court by this Act or any other law, a family court shall have jurisdiction in respect of any divorce action as defined in section 1 of the Divorce Act, 1979 (Act No. 70 of 1979).

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (4) to be added by s. 21 (b) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

29A. Jurisdiction in respect of appeals against decisions of Black chiefs, headmen and chiefs' deputies.—

(1) If a party appeals to a magistrate's court in terms of the provisions of section 12 (4) of the Black Administration Act, 1927 (Act No. 38 of 1927), the said court may confirm, alter or set aside the judgment after hearing such evidence as may be tendered by the parties to the dispute, or as may be deemed desirable by the court.

(2) A confirmation, alteration or setting aside in terms of subsection (1), shall be deemed to be a decision of a magistrate's court for the purposes of the provisions of Chapter XI.

29A. Jurisdiction in respect of appeals against decisions of chiefs, headmen and chiefs' deputies.—(1) If a party appeals to the civil court of a district in terms of the provisions of section 12 (4) of the Black Administration Act, 1927 (Act No. 38 of 1927), the said court may confirm, alter or set aside the judgment after hearing such evidence as may be tendered by the parties to the dispute, or as may be deemed desirable by the court.

(2) A confirmation, alteration or setting aside in terms of subsection (1), shall be deemed to be a decision of the civil court of a district for the purposes of the provisions of Chapter XI.

(Pending amendment: S. 29A to be substituted by s. 22 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

29B. Jurisdiction of civil court of district relative to interlocutory orders and execution emanating from actions in court of civil division.—(1) Except where it is otherwise by law provided, a party or parties to any suit pending in a court of a civil division may, in accordance with the rules, apply to the civil court of the district in which the summons was issued for any interlocutory order, including any order contemplated in section 30, 30bis, 31 or 32 which may emanate from such suit, and that court may grant such order.

(2) (a) Execution in terms of the provisions of Chapter IX of a judgment for the payment of any amount of money or an order for the payment in specified instalments of such an amount, and an administration order, shall in all cases be dealt with by the civil court of the district in which the summons was issued.

(b) The provisions of section 65M in relation to the execution of a judgment for the payment of any amount of money that has been given by a division of the Supreme Court of South Africa, shall mutatis mutandis apply in relation to any such judgment given by any court of a civil division.

(Pending amendment: S. 29B to be inserted by s. 23 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

30. Arrests and interdicts.—(1) Subject to the limits of jurisdiction prescribed by this Act, the court may grant against persons and things orders for attachments, interdicts and mandamenten van spolie.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 2 (a) of Act No. 42 of 2013.]

(2) Confirmation by the court of any such attachment or interdict in the judgment in the action shall operate as an extension of the attachment or interdict until execution or further order of the court.

[Para. (c) amended by s. 11 of Act No. 53 of 1970, by s. 4 of Act No. 19 of 1963 and deleted by s. 2 (b) of Act No. 42 of 2013.]

30bis. Attachment to found or confirm jurisdiction.—The court may order attachment of property to found or confirm jurisdiction against any person who does not reside in the Republic, in respect of an action within its jurisdiction, where the claim or the value of the matter in dispute amounts to at least R2 500, exclusive of any costs in respect of the recovery thereof, and may grant an order allowing service of any process in such action to be effected in such manner as may be stated in such order.

[S. 30bis inserted by s. 8 of Act No. 80 of 1964 and substituted by s. 3 of Act No. 42 of 2013.]

31. Automatic rent interdict.—(1) When a summons is issued in which is claimed the rent of any premises, the plaintiff may include in such summons a notice prohibiting any person from removing any of the furniture or other effects thereon which are subject to the plaintiff's hypothec for rent until an order relative thereto has been made by the court.

(2) The messenger shall, if required by the plaintiff and at such plaintiff's expense, make an inventory of such furniture or effects.

(2) The sheriff shall, if required by the plaintiff and at such plaintiff's expense, make an inventory of such furniture or effects.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (2) to be amended by s. 24 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(3) Such notice shall operate to interdict any person having knowledge thereof from removing any such furniture or effects.

(4) Any person affected by such notice may apply to the court to have the same set aside.

32. Attachment of property in security of rent.—(1) Upon an affidavit by or on behalf of the landlord of any premises situate within the district, that an amount of rent not exceeding the jurisdiction of the court is due and in arrear in regard to the said premises, and that the said rent has been demanded in writing for the space of seven days and upwards, or, if not so demanded, that the deponent believes that the tenant is about to remove the movable property upon the said premises, in order to avoid the payment of such rent, and upon security being given to the satisfaction of the clerk to the court to pay all damages, costs and charges which the tenant of such premises, or any other person, may sustain or incur by reason of the attachment hereinafter mentioned, if the said attachment be thereafter set aside, the court may, upon application, issue an order to the messenger requiring him to attach so much of the movable property upon the premises in question and subject to the landlord's hypothec for rent as may be sufficient to satisfy the amount of such rent, together with the costs of such application and of any action for the said rent.

(1) Upon an affidavit by or on behalf of the landlord of any premises situate within the area of jurisdiction, that an amount of rent not exceeding the jurisdiction of the court is due and in arrear in regard to the said premises, and that the said rent has been demanded in writing for the space of seven days and upwards, or, if not so demanded, that the deponent believes that the tenant is about to remove the movable property upon the said premises, in order to avoid the payment of such rent, and upon security being given to the satisfaction of the clerk to the court to pay all damages, costs and charges which the tenant of such premises, or any other person, may sustain or incur by reason of the attachment hereinafter mentioned, if the said attachment be thereafter set aside, the court may, upon application, issue an order to the sheriff requiring him to attach so much of the movable property upon the premises in question and subject to the landlord's hypothec for rent as may be sufficient to satisfy the amount of such rent, together with the costs of such application and of any action for the said rent.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (1) to be amended by s. 25 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(2) Any person affected by such order may apply to have it set aside.

(3) A respondent whose property has been so attached may by notice in writing to the clerk of the court admit that such property is subject to the landlord's hypothec for an amount to be specified in such notice and may consent that such property (other than property protected from seizure by the provisions of section sixty-seven) be sold in satisfaction of such amount and costs; and such notice shall have the same effect as a consent to judgment for the amount specified.

33. Curator ad litem.—The court may appoint a curator ad litem in any case in which such a curator is required or allowed by law for a party to any proceedings brought or to be brought before the court.

34. Assessors.—In any action the court may, upon the application of either party, summon to its assistance one or two persons of skill and experience in the matter to which the action relates who may be willing to sit and act as assessors in an advisory capacity.

34. Assessors.—In any action the court may, upon the application of either party, summon to its assistance one or two persons who are suitable and available and who may be willing to sit and act as assessors in an advisory capacity.

(Pending amendment: S. 34 to be substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 67 of 1998 with effect from a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not fixed.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

35. Transfer from one court to another.—(1) An action or proceeding may, with the consent of all the parties thereto, or upon the application of any party thereto, and upon its being made to appear that the trial of such action or proceeding in the court wherein summons has been issued may result in undue expense or inconvenience to such party, be transferred by the court to any other court.

(2) An interpleader summons, if issued in the court of the district in which the property was attached, may at the discretion of the court, be remitted for trial to the court in which the judgment was given.

(2) An interpleader summons, if issued in the court of the district or division in which the property was attached, may, at the discretion of the court, be remitted for trial to the court in which the judgment was given.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s (2) to be substituted by s. 26 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(3) An action commenced in a periodical court may, at the discretion of the court, be transferred to the court of the district, or (subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of section twenty seven) vice versa.

36. What judgments may be rescinded.—(1) The court may, upon application by any person affected thereby, or, in cases falling under paragraph (c), suo motu—

- (a) rescind or vary any judgment granted by it in the absence of the person against whom that judgment was granted;
- (b) rescind or vary any judgment granted by it which was void ab origine or was obtained by fraud or by mistake common to the parties;
- (c) correct patent errors in any judgment in respect of which no appeal is pending;
- (d) rescind or vary any judgment in respect of which no appeal lies.

(2) If a plaintiff in whose favour a default judgment has been granted has consented in writing that the judgment be rescinded or varied, a court may rescind or vary such judgment on application by any person affected by it.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 2 (a) of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

(3) (a) Where a judgment debt, the interest thereon at the rate granted in the judgment and the costs have been paid in full, whether the consent of the judgment creditor for the rescission of the judgment has been obtained or not, a court may, on application by the judgment debtor or any other person affected by the judgment rescind that judgment.

(b) The application contemplated in paragraph (a)—

- (i) must be made on a form which corresponds substantially with the form prescribed in the rules;
- (ii) must be accompanied by reasonable proof that the judgment debt, the interest and the costs have been paid;
- (iii) must be accompanied by proof that the application has been served on the judgment creditor, at least 10 court days prior to the hearing of the intended application;
- (iv) may be set down for hearing on any day, not less than 10 court days, after service thereof; and
- (v) may be heard by a magistrate in chambers.

[Sub-s. (3) added by s. 2 (b) of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

(4) A court may make any cost order it deems fit with regard to an application contemplated in paragraph (a).
[S. 36 substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 55 of 2002. Sub-s. (4) added by s. 2 (b) of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

37. Incidental jurisdiction.—(1) In actions wherein the sum claimed, being within the jurisdiction, is the balance of an account, the court may enquire into and take evidence if necessary upon the whole account, even though such account contains items and transactions exceeding the amount of the jurisdiction.

(2) Where the amount claimed or other relief sought is within the jurisdiction, such jurisdiction shall not be ousted merely because it is necessary for the court, in order to arrive at a decision, to give a finding upon a matter beyond the jurisdiction.

(3) In considering whether a claim is or is not within the jurisdiction, no prayer for interest on the principal sum claimed or for costs or for general or alternative relief shall be taken into account.

38. Abandonment of part claim.—(1) In order to bring a claim within the jurisdiction, a plaintiff may in his summons or at any time thereafter explicitly abandon part of such claim.

(2) If any part of a claim be so abandoned it shall thereby be finally extinguished: Provided that, if the claim be upheld in part only, the abandonment shall be deemed first to take effect upon that part of the claim which is not upheld.

39. Deduction of admitted debt.—In order to bring a claim within the jurisdiction a plaintiff may, in his summons or at any time after the issue thereof, deduct from his claim, whether liquidated or unliquidated, any amount admitted by him to be due by himself to the defendant.

40. Splitting of claims disallowed.—A substantive claim exceeding the jurisdiction may not be split with the object of recovering the same in more than one action if the parties to all such actions would be the same and the point at issue in all such actions would also be the same.

41. Joinder of plaintiffs.—(1) Any number of persons, each of whom has a separate claim against the same defendant, may join as plaintiffs in one action if their right to relief depends upon the determination of some question of law or fact which if separate actions were instituted would arise in each action: Provided that if such joint action be instituted the defendant may apply to court for an order directing that separate trials be held and the court in its discretion may make such order as it deems just and expedient.

(2) In any joint action instituted as aforesaid judgment may be given for such one or more of the plaintiffs as may be found entitled to relief.

(3) If all the plaintiffs fail in any such action, the court may make such order as to costs as to it may seem just; in particular, it may order that the plaintiffs pay the costs of the defendant jointly and severally, the one paying the other to be absolved, and that if one plaintiff pays more than his pro rata share of the costs of the defendant, he shall be entitled to recover from the other plaintiffs their pro rata share of such excess.

(4) If some of the plaintiffs succeed and others fail, the court may make such order as to costs as it may deem just.

42. Joinder of defendants.—(1) Several defendants may be sued in the alternative or both in the alternative and jointly in one action, whenever it is alleged by the plaintiff that he has suffered damages and that it is uncertain which of the defendants is in law responsible for such damages: Provided that on the application of any of the defendants the court may in its discretion order that separate trials be held, or make such other order as it may deem just and expedient.

(2) If judgment is given in favour of any defendant or if any defendant is absolved from the instance, the court may make such order as to costs as to it may seem just; in particular, it may order—

- (a) the plaintiff to pay such defendant's costs; or
- (b) the unsuccessful defendants to pay the costs of the successful defendant jointly and severally, the one paying the other to be absolved, and that if one of the unsuccessful defendants pays more than his pro rata share of the costs of the successful defendant, he shall be entitled to recover from the other unsuccessful defendants their pro rata share of such excess, and the court may further order that if the successful defendant is unable to recover the whole or any part of his costs from the unsuccessful defendants, he shall be entitled to recover from the plaintiff such part of his costs as he cannot recover from the unsuccessful defendants.

(3) If judgment is given in favour of the plaintiff against more than one of the defendants the court may make such order as to costs as to it may seem just; in particular it may order those defendants against whom it gives judgment to pay the plaintiff's costs jointly and severally, the one paying the other to be absolved, and that if one of the unsuccessful defendants pays more than his pro rata share of the costs of the plaintiff he shall be entitled to recover from the other unsuccessful defendants their pro rata share of such excess.

43. Jurisdiction cumulative.—(1) If two or more claims, each based upon a different cause of action, are combined in one summons, the court shall have the same jurisdiction to decide each such claim as it would have had if each claim had formed the sole subject of a separate action.

(2) If a claim for the confirmation of an interdict or arrest granted pendente lite be joined in the same summons with a claim for relief of any other character, the court shall have the same jurisdiction to decide each such claim as it would have had if each claim had formed the sole subject of a separate action, even though all the claims arise from the same cause of action.

44. Application of sections 34, 35 and 37 to 43 inclusive to claims in reconvention.—In sections thirty-four, thirty-five and thirty-seven to forty-three inclusive, "action", "claim" and "summons" include "claim in reconvention", and "plaintiff" and "defendant" include "plaintiff in reconvention" and "defendant in reconvention" respectively.

45. Jurisdiction by consent of parties.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 46, the parties may consent in writing to the jurisdiction of either the court for the district or the court for the regional division to determine any action or proceedings otherwise beyond its jurisdiction in terms of section 29 (1).

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 3 (a) of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

(1) Subject to the provisions of sections 46 and 46A, the court shall have jurisdiction to determine any action or proceeding otherwise beyond its jurisdiction, if the parties consent in writing thereto:

(Pending amendment: Sub-s (1) to be amended by s. 27 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(2) Any provision in a contract existing at the commencement of the Act or thereafter entered into, whereby a person undertakes that, when proceedings have been or are about to be instituted, he will give such consent to jurisdiction as is contemplated in the proviso to subsection (1), shall be null and void.

(3) Any consent given in proceedings instituted in terms of section 57, 58, 65 or 65J by a defendant or a judgment debtor to the jurisdiction of a court which does not have jurisdiction over that defendant or judgment debtor in terms of section 28, is of no force and effect.

[Sub-s. (3) added by s. 3 (b) of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

46. Matters beyond the jurisdiction.

- (1)

(1) A civil court of a district shall have no jurisdiction in matters in which the dissolution of a marriage is sought.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s (1) to be substituted by s. 28 (a) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(2) A court shall have no jurisdiction in matters—

(2) A civil court of a district shall have no jurisdiction in matters—

(Pending amendment: Sub-s (2) to be amended by s. 28 (b) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

- (a) in which the validity or interpretation of a will or other testamentary document is in question;
 - (b) in which the status of a person in respect of mental capacity is sought to be affected;
 - (c) in which is sought specific performance without an alternative of payment of damages, except in—
 - (i) the rendering of an account in respect of which the claim does not exceed the amount determined by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette;
[Sub-para. (i) substituted by s. 4 of Act No. 25 of 1987.]
 - (ii) the delivery or transfer of property, movable or immovable, not exceeding in value the amount determined by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette; and [Sub-para. (ii) substituted by s. 4 of Act No. 25 of 1987.]
 - (iii) the delivery or transfer of property, movable or immovable, exceeding in value the amount determined by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette, where the consent of the parties has been obtained in terms of section 45;
- [Para. (c) amended by s. 5 of Act No. 19 of 1963 and substituted by s. 28 of Act No. 94 of 1974 and by s. 2 of Act No. 56 of 1984. Sub-para. (iii) substituted by s. 4 of Act No. 25 of 1987.]
- (d) in which is sought a decree of perpetual silence.

46A. Matters beyond jurisdiction of court of civil division.—A court of a civil division shall have no jurisdiction in matters in which—

- (a) the dissolution of a marriage is sought; and
- (b) the validity or interpretation of a will or other testamentary document is in question.

(Pending amendment: S. 46A to be inserted by s. 29 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

47. Counterclaim exceeding jurisdiction.—(1) When in answer to a claim within the jurisdiction the defendant sets up a counter-claim exceeding the jurisdiction, the claim shall not on that account be dismissed; but the court may, if satisfied that the defendant has prima facie a reasonable prospect on his counter-claim of obtaining a judgment in excess of its jurisdiction, stay the action for a reasonable period in order to enable him to institute an action in a competent court. The plaintiff in the magistrate's court may (notwithstanding his action therein) counter-claim in such competent court and in that event all questions as to the costs incurred in the magistrate's court shall be decided by that competent court.

(1) When in answer to a claim within the jurisdiction the defendant sets up a counter-claim exceeding the jurisdiction, the claim shall not on that account be dismissed; but the court may, if satisfied that the defendant has prima facie a reasonable prospect on his counter-claim of obtaining a judgment in excess of its jurisdiction, stay the action for a reasonable period in order to enable him to institute an action in a competent court. The plaintiff in the civil court may (notwithstanding his action therein) counter-claim in such competent court and in that event all questions as to the costs incurred in the civil court shall be decided by that competent court.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (1) to be amended by s. 30 (a) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(2) If the period for which such action has been stayed has expired and the defendant has failed to issue and serve a summons in a competent court in relation to the matters and the subject of such counter-claim the magistrate's court shall on application either—

(2) If the period for which such action has been stayed has expired and the defendant has failed to issue and serve a summons in a competent court in relation to the matters and the subject of such counter-claim the civil court shall on application either—

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (2) to be amended by s. 30 (b) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

- (a) stay the action for a further reasonable period; or
- (b) dismiss the counter-claim (whether the defendant does or does not reduce such counter-claim to an amount within the jurisdiction of the court).

(3) If the defendant has failed to institute action within such further period or if the action instituted by the defendant be stayed, dismissed, withdrawn, or abandoned, or if the competent court has granted absolution from the instance thereon, the magistrate's court shall, upon application, dismiss the counter-claim and shall proceed to determine the claim.

(3) If the defendant has failed to institute action within such further period or if the action instituted by the defendant be stayed, dismissed, withdrawn, or abandoned, or if the competent court has granted absolution from the instance thereon, the civil court shall, upon application, dismiss the counter-claim and shall proceed to determine the claim.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (3) to be amended by s. 30 (c) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

48. Judgment.—The court may, as a result of the trial of an action, grant—

- (a) judgment for the plaintiff in respect of his claim in so far as he has proved the same;
- (b) judgment for the defendant in respect of his defence in so far as he has proved the same;
- (c) absolution from the instance, if it appears to the court that the evidence does not justify the court in giving judgment for either party;
- (d) such judgment as to costs (including costs as between attorney and client) as may be just;
[Para. (d) substituted by s. 3 of Act No. 48 of 1965.]
- (e) an order, subject to such conditions as the court thinks fit, against the party in whose favour judgment has been given suspending wholly or in part the taking of further proceedings upon the judgment for a specified period pending arrangements by the other party for the satisfaction of the judgment;
[Para. (e) substituted by s. 12 of Act No. 53 of 1970.]
- (f) an order against a party for the payment of an amount of money for which judgment has been granted in specified instalments or otherwise, including an order contemplated by section 65J or 73.
[Para. (f) added by s. 1 of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

49. Cession of costs.—Costs awarded in interlocutory proceedings shall not be ceded without the consent of the court awarding such costs.

50. Removal of actions from court to provincial or local division.—(1) Any action in which the amount of the claim exceeds the amount determined by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette, exclusive of interest and costs, may, upon application to the court by the defendant, or if there is more than one defendant, by any defendant, be removed to the provincial or local division having jurisdiction where the court is held, subject to the following provisions—

- (a) notice of intention to make such application shall be given to the plaintiff, and to other defendants (if any) before the date on which the action is set down for hearing;
- (b) the notice shall state that the applicant objects to the action being tried by the court or any magistrate's court;

(b) the notice shall state that the applicant objects to the action being tried by the court or any other civil court;

(Pending amendment: Para (b) to be substituted by s. 31 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

- (c) the applicant shall give such security as the court may determine and approve, for payment of the amount claimed and such further amount to be determined by the court not exceeding the amount determined by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette, for costs already incurred in the action and which may be incurred in the said provincial or local division.

[Para. (c) amended by s. 6 of Act No. 19 of 1963 and substituted by s. 5 (b) of Act No. 25 of 1987.]

Upon compliance by the applicant with those provisions, all proceedings in the action in the court shall be stayed, and the action and all proceedings therein, shall, if the plaintiff so requires, be as to the defendant or defendants, forthwith removed from the court into the provincial or local division aforesaid having jurisdiction. Upon the removal, the summons in the court shall, as to the defendant or defendants, stand as the summons in the division to which the action is removed, the return date thereof being the date of the order of removal in an action other than one founded on a liquid document, and, in an action founded on a liquid document, being such convenient day on which the said division sits for the hearing of provisional sentence cases, as the court may order: Provided that the plaintiff in the action may, instead of requiring the action to be so removed, issue a fresh summons against the defendant or defendants in any competent court and the costs already incurred by the parties to the action shall be costs in the cause.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 6 of Act No. 19 of 1963 and by s. 5 (a) of Act No. 25 of 1987.]

(2) If the plaintiff is successful in an action so removed to a provincial or local division, he may be awarded costs as between attorney and client.

50A. Removal of divorce action from family court to provincial or local division.—(1) Any family court in which a divorce action as defined in section 1 of the Divorce Act, 1979 (Act No. 70 of 1979), is pending—

(a) may at any stage of the proceedings—

(i) on its own accord;

(ii) on application by any party; or

(iii) on application by a Family Advocate appointed under section 2 (1) of the Mediation in Certain Divorce Matters Act, 1987 (Act No. 24 of 1987), if in the opinion of the court the circumstances so justify;

(b) shall, on application of any party, if the other party agrees thereto, suspend the proceedings and order the clerk of the court to refer that action in accordance with the rules to the registrar of the provincial or local division having jurisdiction where the court is held, for enrolment.

(2) Any question as to costs already incurred in the action referred to in subsection (1) shall abide the result of the action.

(Pending amendment: S. 50A to be inserted by s. 32 of Act No. 120 of 1993 with and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

CHAPTER VII WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE

51. Modes of procuring attendance of witnesses and penalty for non-attendance.—(1) Any party to any civil action or other proceeding where the attendance of witnesses is required may procure the attendance of any witness (whether residing or for the time being within the district or not) in the manner in the rules provided.

(1) Any party to any civil action or other proceeding where the attendance of witnesses is required may procure the attendance of any witness (whether residing or for the time being within the area of jurisdiction of the court or not) in the manner in the rules provided.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (1) to be amended by s. 33 (a) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(2) (a) If any person, being duly subpoenaed to give evidence or to produce any books, papers or documents in his possession or under his control which the party requiring his attendance desires to show in evidence, fails, without lawful excuse, to attend or to give evidence or to produce those books, papers or documents according to the subpoena or, unless duly excused, fails to remain in attendance throughout the trial, the court may, upon being satisfied upon oath or by the return of the messenger that such person has been duly subpoenaed and that his reasonable expenses, calculated in accordance with the tariff prescribed under section 51bis, have been paid or offered to him, impose upon the said person a fine not exceeding R300, and in default of payment, imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, whether or not such person is otherwise subject to the jurisdiction of the court.

[Para. (a) amended by s. 7 of Act No. 19 of 1963, substituted by s. 9 of Act No. 80 of 1964, amended by s. 5 of Act No. 91 of 1977 and substituted by s. 2 of Act No. 19 of 1985.]

(a) If any person, being duly subpoenaed to give evidence or to produce any books, papers or documents in his possession or under his control which the party requiring his attendance desires to show in evidence, fails, without lawful excuse, to attend or to give evidence or to produce those books, papers or documents according to the subpoena or, unless duly excused, fails to remain in attendance throughout the trial, the court may, upon being satisfied upon oath or by the return of the sheriff that such person has been duly subpoenaed and that his reasonable expenses, calculated in accordance with the tariff prescribed under section 51bis, have been paid or offered to him, impose upon the said person a fine not exceeding R300, and in default of payment, imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, whether or not such person is otherwise subject to the jurisdiction of the court.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (2) to be amended by s. 33 (b) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(b) If any person so subpoenaed fails to appear or, unless duly excused, to remain in attendance throughout the trial the court may also, upon being satisfied as aforesaid and in case no lawful excuse for such failure seems to the court to exist, issue a warrant for his apprehension in order that he may be brought up to give his evidence and to be otherwise dealt with according to law, whether or not such person is otherwise subject to the jurisdiction of the court.

(c) The court may, on cause shown, remit the whole or any part of any fine or imprisonment which it has imposed under this subsection.

(d) The court may order the costs of any postponement or adjournment occasioned by the default of a witness or any portion of such costs to be paid out of any fine imposed upon such witness.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this section contained, when a subpoena is issued to procure the attendance of a judicial officer to give evidence or to produce any book, paper or document in a criminal case, civil action or other proceeding, if it appears—

- (i) that he is unable to give any evidence or to produce any book, paper or document which would be relevant to any issue in such case, action or proceedings; or
- (ii) that such book, paper or document could properly be produced by some other person; or
- (iii) that the compelling of his attendance would be an abuse of the process of the court, the court may, after reasonable notice to the party suing out the subpoena, make an order cancelling such subpoena.

51bis. Witness fees.—(1) The Minister may in consultation with the Minister of Finance from time to time by notice in the Gazette prescribe a tariff of allowances which shall be paid to a witness in civil proceedings or to any person necessarily required to accompany any such witness on account of his youth or infirmity due to old age or any other infirmity.

(2) Such notice may differentiate between persons according to the distances which they have to travel to attend the court to which they are summoned or subpoenaed or according to their professions, callings or occupations or between different classes of persons, and may empower such officers in the service of the State as may be specified therein, in cases where payment of allowances in accordance with the tariffs so prescribed may cause undue hardship, to order payment of allowances in accordance with a higher tariff than the tariff so prescribed.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law contained, the court may order that no allowances or only a portion of the allowances prescribed shall be paid to any witness.

[S. 51bis inserted by s. 10 of Act No. 80 of 1964.]

52. Interrogatories.—(1) Whenever a witness resides or is in a district other than that wherein the case is being heard, the court may, if it appears to be consistent with the ends of justice, upon the application of either party approve of such interrogatories as either party shall desire to have put to such witness and shall transmit the same, together with any further interrogatories framed by the court, to the court of the district within which such witness resides or is.

(1) Whenever a witness resides or is in a area of jurisdiction other than that wherein the case is being heard, the court may, if it appears to be consistent with the ends of justice, upon the application of either party approve of such interrogatories as either party shall desire to have put to such witness and shall transmit the same, together with any further interrogatories framed by the court, to the court of the area of jurisdiction within which such witness resides or is.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (1) to be amended by s. 34 (a) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(2) The last-mentioned court shall thereupon subpoena such witness to appear and upon his appearance shall take his evidence in manner and form as if he were a witness in a case pending before that court, and shall put to the witness the said interrogatories and such other questions as may seem to it necessary to obtain full and true answers to the interrogatories and shall record the evidence of the witness and shall transmit such record to the court in which such case is pending. The said record shall (subject to all lawful objections) be received as evidence in that case.

(3) Every witness so subpoenaed to appear shall be liable to the like penalties in case of non-attendance or failure to give evidence or to produce books, papers or documents as if he had been subpoenaed to give evidence in the court of the district in which he resides or is.

(3) Every witness so subpoenaed to appear shall be liable to the like penalties in case of non-attendance or failure to give evidence or to produce books, papers or documents as if he had been subpoenaed to give evidence in the court of the area of jurisdiction in which he resides or is.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (3) to be amended by s. 34 (b) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

53. Commissions de bene esse.—(1) The court may in any case which is pending before it, where it may be expedient and consistent with the ends of justice to do so, appoint a person to be a commissioner to take evidence of any witness, whether within the Republic or elsewhere, upon the request of one of the parties to such case and after due notice to the other party.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 13 of Act No. 53 of 1970.]

(2) The person so appointed shall put to such witness such questions as have been transmitted to him on agreement between the parties, or otherwise shall allow the parties to examine such witness, and may himself examine such witness as if the witness were being examined in court, and shall record the evidence or cause it to be recorded, whereupon the evidence recorded shall be read over to the witness and shall be signed by him.

[Sub-s. (2) amended by s. 14 of Act No. 40 of 1952 (English only).]

(3) The said record shall (subject to all lawful objections) be received as evidence in the case.

54. Pre-trial procedure for formulating issues.—(1) The court may at any stage in any legal proceedings in its discretion suo motu or upon the request in writing of either party direct the parties or their representatives to appear before it in chambers for a conference to consider—

- (a) the simplification of the issues;
- (b) the necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
- (c) the possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents with a view to avoiding unnecessary proof;
- (d) the limitation of the number of expert witnesses;

(e) such other matters as may aid in the disposal of the action in the most expeditious and least costly manner.

(2) The court shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of the parties or their representatives.

(3) Such order shall be binding on the parties unless altered at the trial to prevent manifest injustice.

(4) If a party refuses or neglects to appear at the conference the court may, without derogation from its power to punish for contempt of court, make such order as it considers equitable in the circumstances and upon conclusion of the proceedings may order the party who has so absented himself to pay such costs as in the opinion of the court were incurred as a result of the said absence.

(5) The Court may make such order as to the costs of any proceedings under this section as it deems fit.

54A.

[S. 54A inserted by s. 2 of Act No. 34 of 1986 and repealed by s. 2 of Act No. 45 of 1988.]

CHAPTER VIII
RECOVERY OF DEBTS

[Chapter VIII substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 63 of 1976.
Heading substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

55. Definition.—In this Chapter, unless the context otherwise indicates—

“debt” means any liquidated sum of money due.

[S. 55 amended by s. 8 of Act No. 19 of 1963 and substituted by s. 14 of Act No. 53 of 1970 and by s. 1 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

55A. Factors to be taken into account when considering an order which is just and equitable.—For purposes of Chapters VIII and IX of this Act, the factors a court must take into account when considering whether an order is just and equitable, include, but are not limited to—

- (a) the size of the debt;
- (b) the circumstances in which the debt arose;
- (c) the availability of alternatives to recover the debt;
- (d) the interests of the plaintiff or judgment creditor;
- (e) the rights and needs of the elderly, children, persons with disabilities and households headed by women;
- (f) social values and implications;
- (g) the amount and nature of the defendant’s or judgment debtor’s income;
- (h) the amounts needed by the defendant or judgment debtor for necessary expenses and those of the persons dependent on him or her and for the making of periodical payments which he or she is obliged to make in terms of an order of court, agreement or otherwise in respect of his or her other commitments; and
- (i) whether the order would, in the circumstances of the case, be grossly disproportionate.

[S. 55A inserted by s. 4 of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

56. Recovery of costs of letter of demand.—If any person (in this section called the debtor) pays any debt due by him to any other person (in this section called the creditor) after the creditor has caused a registered letter of demand to be sent to the debtor through an attorney demanding payment of the debt, the creditor shall be entitled to recover from the debtor the fees and costs prescribed in the rules for a registered letter of demand: Provided that the amount of such fees and costs was stated in the letter of demand.

[S. 56 substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

57. Admission of liability and undertaking to pay debt in instalments or otherwise.—(1) If any person (in this section called the defendant) has received a letter of demand or has been served with a summons demanding payment of any debt, the defendant may in writing—

- (a) admit liability to the plaintiff for the amount of the debt and costs claimed in the letter of demand or summons or for any other amount;
- (b) offer to pay the amount of the debt and costs for which he or she admits liability, in instalments or otherwise;
- (c) undertake on payment of any instalment in terms of his or her offer to pay the collection fees for which the plaintiff is liable in respect of the recovery of such instalment; and

- (d) agree that, in the event of his or her failure to carry out the terms of his or her offer, the plaintiff shall, without notice to the defendant, be entitled to apply for judgment for the amount of the outstanding balance of the debt for which he or she admits liability, with costs, and for an order of the court for payment of the judgment debt and costs in instalments or otherwise in accordance with his or her offer, and if the plaintiff or his or her attorney accepts the said offer, he or she shall advise the defendant of such acceptance in writing by registered letter.

(1A) The offer referred to in subsection (1) (b) must—

- (a) set out full particulars of the defendant's—
 - (i) monthly or weekly income and expenditure, supported where reasonably possible by the most recent proof in the possession of the defendant;
 - (ii) other court orders or agreements, if any, with other creditors for payment of a debt and costs in instalments; and
- (b) indicate the amount of the offered instalment.

(2) If, after having been advised by the plaintiff or his or her attorney in writing that his or her offer has been accepted, the defendant fails to carry out the terms of his or her offer, the court may, upon the written request of the plaintiff or his or her attorney and subject to subsection (2A)—

- (a) enter judgment in favour of the plaintiff for the amount or the outstanding balance of the amount of the debt for which the defendant has admitted liability, with costs; and
- (b) order the defendant to pay the judgment debt and costs in specified instalments or otherwise in accordance with his or her offer, and such order shall be deemed to be an order of the court mentioned in section 65A(1).

(2A) The written request referred to in subsection (2) must be accompanied by—

- (a) the summons or if no summons has been issued, a copy of the letter of demand;
- (b) the defendant's written acknowledgment of liability and offer;
- (c) all the particulars and documentary evidence referred to in subsection (1A), in order for the court to be apprised of the defendant's financial position at the time the offer was made and accepted;
- (d) a copy of the plaintiff's or his or her attorney's written acceptance of the offer and proof of postage thereof to the defendant; and
- (e) an affidavit or affirmation by the plaintiff or a certificate by his or her attorney stating in which respects the defendant has failed to carry out the terms of his or her offer and, if the defendant has made any payments since the date of the letter of demand or summons, showing how the balance claimed is arrived at.

(2B) The court—

- (a) may request any relevant information from the plaintiff or his or her attorney in order for the court to be apprised of the defendant's financial position at the time judgment is requested;
- (b) must act in terms of the provisions of the National Credit Act and the regulations thereunder dealing with over-indebtedness, reckless credit and affordability assessment, when considering a request for judgment in terms of this section, based on a credit agreement under the National Credit Act;
- (c) may, if the defendant is employed, and after satisfying itself that it is just and equitable that an emoluments attachment order be issued and that the amount is appropriate, authorise an emoluments attachment order referred to in section 65J; and
- (d) may, notwithstanding the defendant's consent to pay any scale of costs, make a costs order as it deems fit.

(3) When the judgment referred to in subsection (2) has been entered and an order made, and if the judgment debtor was not present or represented when the judgment was entered and the order made, the judgment creditor or his or her attorney must, within 10 days after it has received knowledge that judgment has been entered and an order made, advise the judgment debtor by registered letter of the terms of the judgment and order.

(4) Any judgment entered in favour of the plaintiff under subsection (2) has the effect of a judgment by default.

(5) The provisions of this section apply subject to the relevant provisions of the National Credit Act where the request for judgment is based on a credit agreement under the National Credit Act.

[S. 57 amended by s. 15 of Act No. 53 of 1970, substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 63 of 1976, amended by s. 2 of Act No. 81 of 1997 and substituted by s. 5 of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

58. Consent to judgment or to judgment and an order for payment of judgment debt in instalments.—(1) If any person (in this section called the defendant), upon receipt of a letter of demand or service upon him or her of a summons demanding payment of debt, consents in writing to judgment in favour of the creditor (in this section called the plaintiff) for the amount of the debt and the costs claimed in the letter of demand or summons, or for any other amount, the court may, on the written request of the plaintiff or his or her attorney and subject to subsection (1B)—

- (a) enter judgment in favour of the plaintiff for the amount of the debt and the costs for which the defendant has consented to judgment; and
- (b) if it appears from the defendant's written consent to judgment that he or she has also consented to an order of court for payment in specified instalments or otherwise of the amount of the debt and costs in respect of which he or she has consented to judgment, order the defendant to pay the judgment debt and costs in specified instalments or otherwise in accordance with this consent, and such order shall be deemed to be an order of the court mentioned in section 65A (1).

(1A) If the defendant consents to an order of court for payment in specified instalments referred to in subsection (1) (b), the consent must—

- (a) set out full particulars of his or her—
 - (i) monthly or weekly income and expenditure, supported where reasonably possible by the most recent proof in the possession of the defendant;
 - (ii) other court orders or agreements, if any, with other creditors for payment of a debt and costs in instalments; and
- (b) indicate the amount of the offered instalment.

(1B) The written request referred to in subsection (1) must be accompanied by—

- (a) the summons or if no summons has been issued, a copy of the letter of demand;
- (b) the defendant's written consent to judgment; and
- (c) if the defendant consents to an order of court for payment in specified instalments referred to in subsection (1) (b)—
 - (i) the written consent; and
 - (ii) the full particulars and documentary evidence referred to in subsection (1A) in order for the court to be apprised of the defendant's financial position at the time the defendant consented to judgment.

(1C) The court—

- (a) may request any relevant information from the plaintiff or his or her attorney in order for the court to be apprised of the defendant's financial position at the time the judgment is requested;
- (b) must act in terms of the provisions of the National Credit Act and the regulations thereunder dealing with over-indebtedness, reckless credit and affordability assessment, when considering a request for judgment in terms of this section, based on a credit agreement under the National Credit Act;
- (c) may, if the defendant is employed, and after satisfying itself that it is just and equitable that an emoluments attachment order be issued and that the amount is appropriate, authorise an emoluments attachment order referred to in section 65J; and
- (d) may, notwithstanding the defendant's consent to pay any scale of costs, make a costs order as it deems fit.

(2) The provisions of section 57 (3) and (4) apply in respect of the judgment and court order referred to in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The provisions of this section apply, subject to the relevant provisions of the National Credit Act, where the application for judgment is based on a credit agreement under the National Credit Act.

[S. 58 substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 63 of 1976 and by s. 6 of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

58A. Judgment by default shall be deemed to be judgment of court.—Any judgment by default entered in terms of this Act by the clerk of the court, shall be deemed to be a judgment of the court.

[S. 58A inserted by s. 6 of Act No. 25 of 1987.]

59. Written request constitutes first document in an action.—If no summons is issued in an action the written request referred to in section 57 (2) and 58 (1) shall constitute the first document to be filed in the action and shall contain the particulars prescribed in the rules.

[S. 59 amended by s. 9 of Act No. 19 of 1963 and substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

60. Prohibition of recovery of fees or remuneration by certain persons in connection with the collection of debts.—(1) Unless expressly otherwise provided in this Act or the rules and the National Credit Act, 2005, and subject to the provisions of section 19 of the Debt Collectors Act, 1998, no person other than an attorney, an agent referred to in section 22 or a person authorised by or under the provisions of the National Credit Act, 2005, to do so shall be entitled to recover from the debtor any fees or remuneration in connection with the collection of any debt.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 27 of Act No. 114 of 1998 and by s. 172 (2) of Act No. 34 of 2005.]

(2) Any person who contravenes any provision of subsection (1), shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding R4 000, or, in default of payment, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[S. 60 amended by s. 16 of Act No. 40 of 1952 and substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 63 of 1976. Sub-s. (2) added by s. 2 of Act No. 4 of 1991.]

CHAPTER IX EXECUTION

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

61. Definition.—In this Chapter—

“emoluments” includes—

- (i) salary, wages or any other form of remuneration; and
- (ii) any allowances,

whether expressed in money or not; and “debts” includes any income from whatever source other than emoluments.

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

62. Power to grant or set aside a warrant.—(1) Any court which has jurisdiction to try an action shall have jurisdiction to issue against any party thereto any form of process in execution of its judgment in such action.

(2) A court (in this subsection called a second court), other than the court which gave judgment in an action, shall have jurisdiction on good cause shown to stay any warrant of execution or arrest issued by another court against a party who is subject to the jurisdiction of the second court.

(3) Any court may, on good cause shown, stay or set aside any warrant of execution or arrest issued by itself, including an order under section seventy-two.

63. Execution to be issued within three years.—Execution against property may not be issued upon a judgment after three years from the day on which it was pronounced or on which the last payment in respect thereof was made, except upon an order of the court in which judgment was pronounced or of any court having jurisdiction, in respect of the judgment debtor, on the application and at the expense of the judgment creditor, after due notice to the judgment debtor to show cause why execution should not be issued.

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

64. Execution in case of judgment debt ceded.—Any person who has, either by cession or by operation of law, become entitled to the benefit of a judgment debt may, after notice to the judgment creditor, and the judgment debtor, be substituted on the record for the judgment creditor and may obtain execution in the manner provided for judgment creditors.

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

65. Offer by judgment debtor after judgment.—(1) If at any time after a court has given judgment for the payment of a sum of money and before the issue of a notice under section 65A (1), the judgment debtor makes a written offer to the judgment creditor to pay the judgment debt in specified instalments or otherwise and such offer is accepted by the judgment creditor or his or her attorney, the court may, subject to subsection (2), at the written request of the judgment creditor or his or her attorney, accompanied by the offer order the judgment debtor to pay the judgment debt in specified instalments or otherwise in accordance with his or her offer.

(2) The offer referred to in subsection (1) must be supported, where reasonably possible, by the most recent proof in the possession of the debtor relating to his or her income and expenditure, other court orders or agreements with other creditors for payment of a debt in instalments and assets and liabilities as prescribed by the rules.

(3) The court—

- (a) may request any relevant information from the judgment creditor or his or her attorney in order for the court to be apprised of the judgment debtor's financial position at the time the written request, for an order to pay the judgment debt in specified instalments or otherwise, is made;
- (b) must act in terms of the provisions of the National Credit Act and the regulations thereunder dealing with over-indebtedness, reckless credit and affordability assessment when considering a request for an order in terms of this section, if the judgment is based on a credit agreement under the National Credit Act; and
- (c) may, if the debtor is employed, and after satisfying itself that it is just and equitable that an emoluments attachment order be issued and that the amount is appropriate, authorise an emoluments attachment order referred to in section 65J.

(4) An order made under subsection (1) is deemed to be an order of the court mentioned in section 65A (1).

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

65A. Notice to judgment debtor if judgment remains unsatisfied.—(1) (a) If a court has given judgment for the payment of a sum of money or has ordered the payment in specified instalments or otherwise of such an amount, and such judgment or order has remained unsatisfied for a period of 10 days from the date on which it was given or on which such an amount became payable or from the expiry of the period of suspension ordered in terms of section 48 (e), as the case may be, the judgment creditor may issue, from the court of the district in which the judgment debtor resides, carries on business or is employed, or if the judgment debtor is a juristic person, from the court of the district in which the registered office or main place of business of the juristic person is situate, a notice calling upon the judgment debtor or, if the judgment debtor is a juristic person, a director or officer of the juristic person as representative of the juristic person and in his or her personal capacity, to appear before the court in chambers on a date specified in such notice in order to enable the court to inquire into the financial position of the judgment debtor and to make such order as the court may deem just and equitable.

(b) A notice referred to in paragraph (a) shall be drawn up by the judgment creditor or his or her attorney, signed by the judgment creditor or his or her attorney and the clerk of the court, and served by the sheriff, or by the attorney of the judgment creditor or any candidate attorney in his or her employ, on the judgment debtor or, if the judgment debtor is a juristic person, on the director or officer summonsed as the representative of the juristic person and in his or her personal capacity, in the manner prescribed by the rules for the service of process in general and at least ten days before the date fixed in the notice for the appearance before the court.

(c) The fees and charges in respect of a notice served by any attorney or candidate attorney shall be determined in accordance with the tariffs prescribed by the rules for the service of process by a sheriff: Provided that no such fees and charges shall be payable unless personal service of the notice has been effected.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 3 (a) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(2) If the minutes of the proceedings do not show that the judgment debtor was present in person or represented by any person when judgment was given and if no warrant of execution pursuant to the judgment has been served on the judgment debtor personally, no notice under subsection (1) shall be issued unless the judgment creditor or his or her attorney provides proof to the satisfaction of the clerk of the court that he or she has advised the judgment debtor by registered letter of the terms of the judgment or of the expiry of the suspension ordered under section 48 (e), as the case may be, and a period of 10 days has elapsed since the date on which the said letter was posted.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 3 (b) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(3) The court may, at any stage of the proceedings, if a director or officer mentioned in subsection (1) ceases to be a director or officer of the juristic person concerned or absconds, at the request of the judgment creditor, from time to time replace such director or officer by any other person who at the time of such replacement may be a director or officer of the juristic person, and the proceedings shall then continue as if there has been no replacement.

(4) If the court has given judgment for the payment of an amount of money in instalments, no notice under subsection (1) shall be issued unless the judgment creditor has delivered an affidavit or affirmation or his or her attorney has delivered a certificate to the clerk of the court in which is mentioned the outstanding balance of the judgment debt, in what respects the judgment debtor has failed to comply with the court order, to what extent he or she is in arrear with the payment of the instalments and that the judgment debtor was advised by registered letter of the terms of the judgment.

[Sub-s. (4) substituted by s. 3 (c) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(5) If a judgment debtor fails to satisfy an order to pay the judgment debt in instalments or otherwise, or if an emoluments attachment order has not been satisfied, a judgment creditor may issue anew a notice in accordance with subsection (1).

[Sub-s. (5) added by s. 3 (d) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(6) If the court is satisfied on the ground of sufficient proof or otherwise—

- (a) that the judgment debtor, director or officer concerned has knowledge of a notice referred to in subsection (1) and that he or she has failed to appear before the court and on the date and at the time specified in the notice;
- (b) that the judgment debtor, director or officer concerned, in the case where the relevant proceedings were postponed in his or her presence to a date and time determined by the court, has failed to appear before the court on that date and at that time; or
- (c) that the judgment debtor, director or officer concerned has failed to remain in attendance at the relevant proceedings or at the proceedings as so postponed, the court may, at the request of the judgment creditor or his or her attorney, authorise the issue of a warrant directing a sheriff to arrest the said judgment debtor, director or officer and to bring him or her before a competent court at the earliest possible opportunity in order to enable that court to conduct an inquiry referred to in subsection (1).

[Sub-s. (6) added by s. 3 (d) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(7) A warrant authorised under subsection (6) shall be prepared by the judgment creditor or his or her attorney, signed by the judgment creditor or his or her attorney and the clerk of the court, and executed by the sheriff.

[Sub-s. (7) added by s. 3 (d) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(8) (a) Any person arrested under a warrant referred to in subsection (6) shall, in accordance with section 35 (1) (d) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act No. 108 of 1996), be brought as soon as reasonably possible before the court within the district of which that person was arrested: Provided that any such person, if it is not possible to bring him or her before the court concerned, may be detained at any police station pending his or her appearance before that court.

(b) In lieu of arresting a person contemplated in paragraph (a), the sheriff may, if the judgment creditor or his or her attorney consents thereto, hand to that person a notice in writing which—

- (i) specifies the name, the residential address and the occupation or status of that person;
- (ii) calls upon that person to appear before the court and on the date and at the time specified in the notice; and
- (iii) contains a certificate signed by the sheriff to the effect that he or she has handed the original of the notice to that person and that he or she has explained to that person the import thereof.

(c) The sheriff shall forthwith forward a duplicate original of the notice to the clerk of the court concerned, and the mere production in the court of such a duplicate original shall be prima facie proof that the original thereof was handed to the person specified therein.

(d) The provisions of subsection (6) shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of a notice referred to in paragraph (b).

[Sub-s. (8) added by s. 3 (d) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(9) Any person who—

- (a) is called upon to appear before a court under a notice referred to in subsection (1) or (8) (b) and who wilfully fails to appear before the court and on the date and at the time specified in the notice;
- (b) in the case where the relevant proceedings were postponed in his or her presence to a date and time determined by a court, wilfully fails to appear before the court on that date and at that time;
- (c) wilfully fails to remain in attendance at the relevant proceedings or at the proceedings as so postponed, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.

[Sub-s. (9) added by s. 3 (d) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(10) (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act—

- (i) the court which authorised the issue of a warrant referred to in subsection (6) and the court contemplated in subsection (8) (a), if the latter court is not the court which authorised the issue of the warrant concerned, shall have jurisdiction to inquire in a summary manner into the commission of an offence referred to in subsection (9), and upon proof beyond reasonable doubt that the person concerned is guilty of such an offence, to so convict him or her and to impose on him or her any penalty provided for in the said subsection (9);

- (ii) the court contemplated in subsection (8) (a), if the court is not the court which authorised the issue of the warrant concerned, shall have jurisdiction to conduct an inquiry referred to in subsection (1) and to perform such other acts as the court which authorised the issue of the warrant concerned could lawfully have performed.

(b) On the appearance before the court of the judgment debtor, director or officer concerned in pursuance of either his or her arrest under a warrant referred to in subsection (6) or the delivery to him or her of a notice referred to in subsection (8) (b), the court shall inform him or her—

- (i) that the court intends to inquire in a summary manner into his or her alleged wilful failure to appear before the court and on the date and at the time specified in a notice referred to in subsection (1) or (8) (b), or to appear, in the case where the relevant proceedings were postponed in his or her presence to a date and time determined by any court, before that court on that date and at that time, or to remain in attendance at the relevant proceedings or at the proceedings as so postponed, as the case may be;
- (ii) that the court, if the court so convicts him or her, may impose on him or her any penalty provided for in subsection (9); and
- (iii) that he or she has the right to choose, and be represented by, a legal practitioner.

(c) A court before which proceedings under paragraph (b) are pending—

- (i) shall have due regard to the following rights, namely—
 - (aa) the right of an accused person to be presumed innocent, to remain silent and not to testify;
 - (bb) the right of an accused person to adduce and to challenge evidence; and
 - (cc) the right of an accused person not to be compelled to give self-incriminating evidence;
- (ii) may adjourn such proceedings to any date on such conditions not inconsistent with a provision of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), and as the court may think fit;
- (iii) if the court is of the opinion that it is in the interests of the administration of justice, may at any time before the judgment debtor, director or officer concerned is acquitted or convicted of an offence referred to in subsection (9) suspend such proceedings and refer the matter to the public prosecutor concerned to take a decision on the prosecution of the said judgment debtor, director or officer for such an offence.

[Sub-s. (10) added by s. 3 (d) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(11) After the court has dealt with the inquiry referred to in subsection (10) (b), the court shall proceed to the inquiry referred to in subsection (1) and deal with the matter in accordance with the other sections of this Chapter: Provided that the court—

- (a) if the court is not the court which authorised the issue of the warrant concerned; and
- (b) if the court is of the opinion that it is in the interests of the administration of justice, may transfer the matter to the court which authorised the issue of that warrant.

[Sub-s. (11) added by s. 3 (d) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(12) (a) If the court before which proceedings under subsections (10) (b) and (11) are pending is not the court which authorised the issue of the warrant concerned, the clerk of the former court shall without any delay notify the clerk of the latter court of the appearance of the judgment debtor, director or officer concerned before the former court, and shall inform the judgment creditor or his or her attorney accordingly.

(b) The clerk of the court which authorised the issue of the warrant concerned shall without any delay furnish the court before which proceedings under subsections (10) (b) and (11) are pending with such records or documents relating to such proceedings as the latter court may direct.

65C. Joinder of proceedings.—If, under section 65A (1), two or more notices have been served on any judgment debtor or director or officer to appear on the same day as provided in that section, the proceedings in terms of such notices may be heard concurrently.

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

65D. Determination of judgment debtor's financial position.—(1) On the appearance before the court of the judgment debtor or, if the judgment debtor is a juristic person, the director or officer of the juristic person summonsed as the representative of the juristic person or in his or her personal capacity, on the return day of the notice referred to in section 65A (1) or (8) (b), in pursuance of his or her arrest under a warrant referred to in section 65A (6), or on any date to which the proceedings have been postponed, the court in chambers shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, call upon him or her to give evidence under oath or affirmation on his or her financial position or the financial position of the juristic person, as the case may be, and the court shall permit the examination or cross-examination of the judgment debtor or the said director or officer on all matters relevant to the judgment debtor's financial position and his or her ability to pay the judgment debt, and the court shall receive such further evidence as may be adduced either orally or by affidavit or in such other manner as the court may deem just, by or on behalf of either the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor, as is material to the determination of the judgment debtor's financial position and his or her ability to pay the judgment debt, and for the purposes of such evidence witnesses may be summonsed in the manner prescribed in the rules.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 6 (a) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(2) The court may at any time in the presence of the judgment debtor or the said director or officer postpone the proceedings to such date as the court may determine.

(3) When postponing the proceedings under subsection (2) the court—

- (a) shall inform the judgment debtor or the director or officer concerned of the provisions of section 65E (1) (c);
- (b) may order the judgment debtor or the director or officer to produce such documents as the court may specify at the hearing on the date determined by the court; and
- (c) may determine such conditions as it may deem fit.

(4) In determining the ability of the judgment debtor to pay the judgment debt in instalments or otherwise the court shall take into consideration—

- (a) in the case of a judgment debtor who is a natural person, the nature of his income, the amounts needed by him for his necessary expenses and those of the persons dependent on him, and for the making of periodical payments which he is obliged to make in terms of an order of court, agreement or otherwise in respect of his other commitments as disclosed in the evidence presented at the hearing of the proceedings; or
- (b) in the case of a judgment debtor who is a juristic person, the amounts required by such juristic person to meet its necessary administrative expenses and for the making of periodical payments which it is obliged to make in terms of an order of court, agreement or otherwise in respect of its other commitments as disclosed in the evidence presented at the hearing of the proceedings.

[Sub-s. (4) amended by s. 6 (b) of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(5) In determining the ability of the judgment debtor to pay the judgment debt in instalments or otherwise the court may, in its discretion, refuse to take account of the periodical payments that a judgment debtor has undertaken to make in terms of a credit agreement, as defined in section 1 of the National Credit Act, 2005 for the purchase of goods which have not been exempted from seizure in terms of section 67 or which cannot, in the opinion of the court, be regarded as the judgment debtor's household requirements.

[S. 65D inserted by s. 2 of Act No. 63 of 1976. Sub-s. (5) substituted by s. 6 (c) of Act No. 81 of 1997 and amended by s. 172 (2) of Act No. 34 of 2005.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

(5) The court may, in its discretion, refuse to take account of the periodical payments that a judgment debtor has undertaken to make in terms of a credit transaction as defined in section 1 of the Credit Agreements Act, 1980 (Act No. 75 of 1980), for the purchase of goods which have not been exempted from seizure in terms of section 67 or which cannot, in the opinion of the court, be regarded as the judgment debtor's household requirements.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (5) to be substituted by s. 36 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

65E. Postponement of proceedings pending execution.—(1) If at the hearing of the proceedings in terms of a notice under section 65A (1) the court is satisfied—

- (a) that the judgment debtor has movable or immovable property which may be attached and sold in order to satisfy the judgment debt or any part thereof, the court may—
 - (i) authorise the issue of a warrant of execution against such movable or immovable property or such part thereof as the court may deem fit; or
 - (ii) authorise the issue of such a warrant together with an order in terms of section 73; or
- (b) that there is a debt due to the judgment debtor which may be attached in terms of section 72 to satisfy the judgment debt and costs or part thereof, the court may authorise the attachment of that debt in terms of that section; or
- (c) that the judgment debtor or, if the judgment debtor is a juristic person, the director or officer summoned as representative of the juristic person, at any time after receipt of a notice referred to in section 65A (1), has made an offer in writing to the judgment creditor or his or her attorney to pay the judgment debt and costs in specified instalments or otherwise, or, if such an offer has not been made, that the judgment debtor is able to pay the judgment debt and costs in reasonable instalments, the court may order the judgment debtor to pay the judgment debt and costs in specified instalments and, where the judgment debtor is a natural person and is employed and after satisfying itself that it is just and equitable that an emoluments attachment order be issued and that the amount is appropriate, in addition authorise the issue of an emoluments attachment order by virtue of section 65J (1) for the payment of the judgment debt and costs by the employer of the judgment debtor, and postpone any further hearings of the proceedings.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 8 of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

(2) Any authorization under subsection (1) (a) shall, pending the execution of the warrant, serve as an interdict against the alienation of the property concerned by the judgment debtor.

(3) Proceedings postponed under subsection (1) may again be placed on the roll by the judgment creditor or his attorney by notice delivered personally or served by registered letter addressed to the judgment debtor or, if the judgment debtor is a juristic person, to the director or officer summoned as the representative of the juristic person and in his personal capacity and delivered or posted at least 10 days before the day appointed therein for the hearing.

(4) If the judgment creditor issues or causes to be issued a warrant of execution against movable property belonging to any judgment debtor before the hearing of proceedings in terms of a notice under section 65A (1) and a nulla bona return is made, the judgment creditor shall not be entitled to costs in connection with the issue and execution of such warrant unless the court on good cause shown orders otherwise at the hearing of the proceedings.

(5) The court may from time to time suspend, amend or rescind an order for the payment of a judgment debt and costs in specified instalments made in terms of subsection (1) (c) of this section or section 57, 58 or 65.

(6) Upon an order referred to in subsection (1) (c) of this section or section 57, 58 or 65 having been made and if the judgment debtor was not present or represented in court when the order was made, the judgment creditor or his or her attorney shall forthwith by registered letter advise the judgment debtor of the terms of the order.

65I. Application for administration order has preference.—(1) If, before or during the hearing of the proceedings in terms of a notice under section 65A (1) a judgment debtor has lodged or lodges with the court an application for an administration order for hearing on a date not later than the earliest date on which such application may be heard and it appears that he has complied with the provisions of section 74, the court shall postpone the hearing of the proceedings until the application for an administration order has been disposed of.

(2) If a judgment debtor has not lodged or does not lodge with the court an application for an administration order before or during the hearing of such proceedings and it appears at the hearing that the judgment debtor has other debts as well, the court shall consider whether all the judgment debtor's debts should be treated collectively and if it is of opinion that they should be so treated, it may, with a view to granting an administration order, postpone further hearing of the proceedings to a date determined by the court and order the judgment debtor to submit to the court a full statement of his affairs in the form prescribed in the rules, and containing the particulars for which the said rules make provision and to cause a copy thereof to be delivered by registered post to each of his creditors at least 3 days before the date appointed for the further hearing.

(3) If upon receipt of the statement referred to in subsection (2) it appears that the judgment debtor's total debts do not exceed the amount determined by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette, the court may grant an administration order under section 74 in respect of the judgment debtor's estate.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 4 of Act No. 19 of 1985 and by s. 7 of Act No. 25 of 1987.]

(4) If the court grants an administration order in respect of the judgment debtor's estate, it shall stay the proceedings in terms of the notice under section 65A (1), but may grant the judgment creditor costs already incurred in connection with such proceedings, and such costs may be added to the judgment debt.

65J. Emoluments attachment orders.—(1) (a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), a judgment creditor may cause an order (hereinafter referred to as an emoluments attachment order) to be issued from the court of the district in which the judgment debtor resides, carries on business or is employed.

(b) An emoluments attachment order—

- (i) must attach the emoluments at present or in future owing or accruing to the judgment debtor by or from his or her employer (in this section called the garnishee), to the amount necessary to cover the judgment and the costs of the attachment, whether that judgment was obtained in the court concerned or in any other court; and
- (ii) must oblige the garnishee to pay from time to time to the judgment creditor or his or her attorney specific amounts out of the emoluments of the judgment debtor in accordance with the order of court laying down the specific instalments payable by the judgment debtor, until the relevant judgment debt and costs have been paid in full.

(1A) (a) The amount of the instalment payable or the total amount of instalments payable where there is more than one emoluments attachment order payable by the judgment debtor, may not exceed 25 per cent of the judgment debtor's basic salary.

(b) For purposes of this section, "basic salary" means the annual gross salary a judgment debtor is employed on divided by 12 and excludes additional remuneration for overtime or other allowances.

(c) (i) When a court considers—

- (aa) the authorisation of an emoluments attachment order; or
- (bb) any other order contemplated in this section, and after having considered all submissions before the court and after having called for and considered all further available documents, the court is satisfied that other emoluments attachment orders exist against the judgment debtor, the court must postpone the further consideration of the authorisation or other order and set the matter down for hearing.

(ii) The party applying for the authorisation of an emoluments attachment order or other order contemplated in this section, must serve notice of the date of the hearing referred to in subparagraph (i) on the other creditors or their attorneys, and on the judgment debtor, if he or she was not present or represented when the consideration of the authorisation of an emoluments attachment order or other order was postponed.

(iii) The court may after hearing all parties at the ensuing hearing, make an order regarding the division of the amount available to be committed to each of the emoluments attachment orders, after satisfying itself that each order is just and equitable and the sum of the total amount of the emoluments attachment orders is appropriate and does not exceed 25 per cent of the judgment debtor's basic salary.

(2) An emoluments attachment order may only be issued if the court has so authorised, after satisfying itself that it is just and equitable that an emoluments attachment order be issued and that the amount is appropriate, whether on application to the court or otherwise, and such authorisation has not been suspended.

(2A) A judgment creditor or his or her attorney must serve, on the judgment debtor and on his or her employer, a notice, which corresponds substantially with the form prescribed in the rules, of the intention to have an emoluments attachment order issued against the judgment debtor in accordance with the authorisation of the court referred to in subsection (2).

(2B) The notice referred to in subsection (2A) must inform the judgment debtor and his or her employer—

- (a) of the judgment creditor's intention to have an emoluments attachment order issued against the judgment debtor in accordance with the authorisation of the court referred to in subsection (2);

- (b) of the full amount of the capital debt, interest and costs outstanding, substantiated by a statement of account; and
- (c) that, unless the judgment debtor or his or her employer files a notice of intention to oppose the issuing of the emoluments attachment order within 10 days after service of the notice on them, an emoluments attachment order will be sought.

(2C) (a) The notice of intention to oppose contemplated in subsection (2B) (c) must state the grounds upon which the judgment debtor or employer wishes to oppose the issuing of the emoluments attachment order.

(b) The grounds which may be used to oppose the issuing of the emoluments attachment order include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (i) That the amounts claimed are erroneous or not in accordance with the law; or
 - (ii) that 25 per cent of the judgment debtor's basic salary is already committed to other emoluments attachment orders and that the debtor will not have sufficient means left for his or her own maintenance or that of his or her dependants.
- (c) The notice of intention to oppose must be accompanied by—
- (i) a certificate by the employer of the judgment debtor setting out particulars of—
 - (aa) all existing court orders against the judgment debtor or agreements with other creditors for payment of a debt and costs in instalments; and
 - (bb) when reasonably attainable, the amounts needed by the debtor for necessary expenses and those of the persons dependent on him or her and for the making of periodical payments which he or she is obliged to make in terms of an agreement or otherwise in respect of his or her other commitments.
 - (ii) the contact details of all the relevant judgment creditors or their attorneys; and
 - (iii) the latest salary advice of the judgment debtor.

(2D) If a notice of intention to oppose is filed and the judgment creditor or his or her attorney does not accept the reasons for the opposition, he or she or his or her attorney may set the matter down for hearing in court with notice to the judgment debtor and employer and if the opposition is based on overcommitment of the judgment debtor's salary to existing court orders or agreements with other creditors for payment of a debt and costs in instalments, notice must be given to the other judgment creditors or their attorneys.

(2E) The court may, after hearing all parties and after satisfying itself that the order is just and equitable—

- (a) rescind the emoluments attachment order or amend it in such a way that it will affect only the balance of the emoluments of the judgment debtor over and above the sufficient means necessary for his or her maintenance and that of his or her dependants; or
- (b) make any order, including an order regarding the division of the amount available to be committed to all the emoluments attachment orders, after satisfying itself that the amount is appropriate and does not exceed 25 per cent of the judgment debtor's basic salary and an order as to costs.

(3) (a) Any emoluments attachment order must be prepared and signed by the judgment creditor or his or her attorney.

(b) The clerk of the court must ensure that the court—

- (i) has authorised the emoluments attachment order; and
- (ii) has jurisdiction as provided for in subsection (1) (a),

before issuing an emoluments attachment order authorised in terms of subsection (2) by signing it and may either ask the judgment creditor or his or her attorney for more information or refer the order to the court in the case of any uncertainty.

(c) The emoluments attachment order must be served on the employer of the judgment debtor, (hereinafter called the garnishee) and if the judgment debtor was not present or represented when the emoluments attachment order was authorised, also on the judgment debtor, by the sheriff in the manner prescribed by the rules for the service of process.

(4) (a) Deductions in terms of an emoluments attachment order shall be made, if the emoluments of the judgment debtor are paid monthly, at the end of the month following the month in which it is served on the garnishee, or, if the emoluments of the judgment debtor are paid weekly, at the end of the second week of the month following the month in which it is so served on the garnishee, and all payments thereunder to the judgment creditor or his or her attorney shall be made monthly with effect from the end of the month following the month in which the said order is served on the garnishee.

(b) The judgment creditor or his or her attorney must furnish the garnishee and the judgment debtor, free of charge with a quarterly statement containing particulars of the payments received up to the date concerned and the balance owing.

(5) An emoluments attachment order may be executed against the garnishee as if it were a court judgment, subject to the right of the judgment debtor, the garnishee or any other interested party to dispute the existence or validity of the order or the correctness of the balance claimed.

(6) (a) If, after the service of such an emoluments attachment order on the garnishee, the garnishee believes or becomes aware or it is otherwise shown that the—

- (i) judgment debtor, after satisfaction of the emoluments attachment order, will not have sufficient means for his or her own maintenance or that of his or her dependants; or
- (ii) amounts claimed are erroneous or not in accordance with the law, the garnishee, judgment debtor or any other interested party must without delay and in writing notify the judgment creditor or his or her attorney accordingly.

(b) The written notification referred to in paragraph (a) must set out the reasons for believing or knowing that the judgment debtor will not have sufficient means for his or her own maintenance or that of his or her dependants or that the amounts claimed are erroneous or not in accordance with the law.

(c) The judgment creditor or his or her attorney must, after receiving the notice contemplated in paragraph (a), without delay indicate whether he or she accepts the reasons given in that notification and if not, set the matter down for hearing in court with notice to the garnishee, judgment debtor or any other interested party referred to in paragraph (a).

(d) The court may, after hearing all parties and after satisfying itself that the order is just and equitable—

- (i) rescind the emoluments attachment order or amend it in such a way that it will affect only the balance of the emoluments of the judgment debtor over and above the sufficient means necessary for his or her maintenance and that of his or her dependants; or
- (ii) make any order including an order regarding the division of the amount available to be committed to all the emoluments attachment orders, after satisfying itself that the amount is appropriate and does not exceed 25 per cent of the judgment debtor's basic salary and an order as to costs.

(7) Any emoluments attachment order may at any time on good cause shown be suspended, amended or rescinded by the court, and when suspending any such order the court may impose such conditions as it may deem just and reasonable.

(8) (a) Whenever any judgment debtor to whom an emoluments attachment order relates leaves the service of a garnishee before the judgment debt has been paid in full, such judgment debtor must forthwith advise the judgment creditor or his or her attorney in writing of the name and address of his or her new employer, and the judgment creditor or his or her attorney may cause a certified copy of such emoluments attachment order to be served on the said new employer, together with an affidavit or affirmation by him or her or a certificate by his or her attorney specifying the payments received by him or her since such order was issued, the costs, if any, incurred since the date on which that order was issued and the balance outstanding.

(b) An employer on whom a certified copy referred to in paragraph (a) has been so served, is thereupon bound thereby and is deemed to have been substituted for the original garnishee, subject to the right of the judgment debtor, the garnishee or any other interested party to dispute the existence or validity of the order and the correctness of the balance claimed.

(9) Whenever any judgment debtor to whom an emoluments attachment order relates, leaves the service of the garnishee before the judgment debt has been paid in full and becomes self-employed or is employed by someone else, he or she is, or is pending the service of the emoluments attachment order on his or her new employer, again obliged to comply with the relevant order referred to in subsection (1) (b).

(10) (a) Any garnishee may, in respect of the services rendered by him or her in terms of an emoluments attachment order, recover from the judgment creditor a commission of up to 5 per cent of all amounts deducted by him or her from the judgment debtor's emoluments by deducting such commission from the amount payable to the judgment creditor.

(b) A garnishee who—

- (i) unreasonably fails to timeously deduct the amount of the emoluments attachment order provided for in subsection (4) (a); or
- (ii) unreasonably fails to timeously stop the deductions when the judgment debt and costs have been paid in full, is liable to repay to the judgment debtor any additional costs and interest which have accrued or any amount deducted from the salary of the judgment debtor after the judgment debt and costs have been paid in full as a result of such failure.

(c) The Rules Board for Courts of Law must make a reference to the provisions of paragraph (b) on Form 38 of Annexure 1 to the rules, containing the emoluments attachment order.

65K. Orders as to costs relating to certain proceedings.—(1) Unless at the hearing of any proceedings in terms of a notice under section 65A (1) it appears to the court that the judgment debtor, after learning of the judgment upon which such proceedings were founded, made an offer to pay the judgment debt in instalments which the court deems reasonable, or notified the judgment creditor that he was not able to make an offer and the court finds this to be true, the court may order the judgment debtor to pay the costs of such proceedings, but if it appears that the judgment creditor refused such offer, the court may order the judgment creditor to pay such costs, including the loss of wages suffered by the judgment debtor through having to appear in court in connection with the proceedings.

[Sub-s. (2) deleted by s. 12 of Act No. 81 of 1997.]

(3) The provisions of this section shall not preclude the court from making such order regarding costs as it may deem just in any proceedings in terms of a notice under section 65A (1).

66. Manner of execution.—(1) (a) Whenever a court gives judgment for the payment of money or makes an order for the payment of money in instalments, such judgment, in case of failure to pay such money forthwith, or such order in case of failure to pay any instalment at the time and in the manner ordered by the court, shall be enforceable by execution against the movable property and, if there is not found sufficient movable property to satisfy the judgment or order, or the court, on good cause shown, so orders, then against the immovable property of the party against whom such judgment has been given or such order has been made.

(b) Upon such failure to pay any instalment in accordance with any court order, execution may be effected in respect of the whole of the judgment debt and of costs then still unpaid, unless the court, on the application of the party that is liable, orders otherwise.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 16 of Act No. 40 of 1952 and substituted by s. 3 (a) of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(2) No immovable property which is subject to any claim preferent to that of the judgment creditor shall be sold in execution unless—

- (a) the judgment creditor has caused such notice in writing of the intended sale in execution to be served personally upon the preferent creditor as may be prescribed by the rules; or
- (b) the magistrate or an additional or assistant magistrate of the district in which the property is situate has upon the application of the judgment creditor and after enquiry into the circumstances of the case, directed what steps shall be taken to bring the intended sale to the notice of the preferent creditor, and those steps have been carried out,

(b) a civil magistrate of the district in which the property is situate has upon the application of the judgment creditor and after enquiry into the circumstances of the case, directed what steps shall be taken to bring the intended sale to the notice of the preferent creditor, and those steps have been carried out, and unless

- (c) the proceeds of the sale are sufficient to satisfy the claim of such preferent creditor, in full; or
- (d) the preferent creditor confirms the sale in writing, in which event he shall be deemed to have agreed to accept such proceeds in full settlement of his claim.

(3) A sale in execution of such immovable property as is referred to in subsection (2) shall take place within such period of the date of attachment and in such manner as may be provided by the rules.

(4) If a sale referred to in subsection (3) does not take place or the immovable property concerned is not released from attachment within a period of one year from the date of attachment, such attachment shall lapse.

[Sub-s. (4) added by s. 3 (b) of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(5) The court may, upon the application and at the expense of the judgment creditor, after due notice of such application has been given to the judgment debtor, extend the period of one year referred to in subsection (4) by further periods of one year each.

[Sub-s. (5) added by s. 3 (b) of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(6) A judgment creditor (whether by virtue of a judgment given in the Supreme Court of South Africa or in a magistrate's court) desiring to attach immovable property that is already under attachment (whether made by a deputy sheriff or by a messenger) and in respect of which a sale in execution is not pending, and who has lodged a warrant of execution with the deputy sheriff or messenger of the court, may, after notifying the interested parties, apply to the court for an order to the effect that the property may be sold in terms of this warrant.

[Sub-s. (6) added by s. 3 (b) of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(6) A judgment creditor (whether by virtue of a judgment given in the Supreme Court of South Africa or in a civil court) desiring to attach immovable property that is already under attachment and in respect of which a sale in execution is not pending, and who has lodged a warrant of execution with the sheriff, may, after notifying the interested parties, apply to the court for an order to the effect that the property may be sold in terms of his warrant.

71A. Movable property which messenger cannot dispose of in terms of this Act, shall be sold by public auction.—(1) Any movable property in the custody of the messenger or any other person acting on his behalf in respect of which attachment has been withdrawn or which is released from attachment and in respect of which the owner or person from whose possession the property has been removed, cannot be traced, and which cannot be disposed of in terms of this Act, shall be sold by the messenger by public auction, and the proceeds of the sale shall, after deduction of the messenger's costs, be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund: Provided that such sale shall not take place unless such property has remained unclaimed for a period of fourteen days after the messenger has published, in one English and one Afrikaans newspaper circulating in the district where the last known address of the judgment debtor is situate, a notice containing the name of the judgment debtor, a description of the property and stating the intention to sell such property if it is not claimed within the period specified therein.

(2) After the public auction referred to in subsection (1), the messenger shall draw up a vendue roll as if the sale was a sale in execution of property and shall attach the roll to his return in respect of the relevant process of the court in the case together with proof that the proceeds of the sale have been paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

(3) The proceeds of a sale paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund in terms of this section, shall be refunded out of accruing revenue to any person who satisfies a judicial officer of the district in which the sale took place that he would have been entitled to receive the property referred to in this section after the attachment thereof had been withdrawn or the property had been released from attachment.

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

71A. Movable property which sheriff cannot dispose of in terms of this Act, shall be sold by public auction.—(1) Any movable property in the custody of the sheriff or any other person acting on his or her behalf in respect of which attachment has been withdrawn or which is released from attachment and in respect of which the owner or person from whose possession the property has been removed, cannot be traced, and which cannot be disposed of in terms of this Act, shall be sold by the sheriff by public auction, and the proceeds of the sale shall, after deduction of the sheriff's costs, be paid into the National Revenue Fund: Provided that such sale shall not take place unless such property has remained unclaimed for a period of fourteen days after the sheriff has published, in one English and one Afrikaans newspaper circulating in the district where the last known address of the judgment debtor is situate, a notice containing the name of the judgment debtor and a description of the property and stating the intention to sell such property if it is not claimed within the period specified therein.

(2) After the public auction referred to in subsection (1), the sheriff shall draw up a venue roll as if the sale was a sale in execution of property and shall attach the roll to his or her return in respect of the relevant process of the court in the case together with proof that the proceeds of the sale have been paid into the National Revenue Fund.

(3) The proceeds of a sale paid into the National Revenue Fund in terms of this section, shall be refunded out of accruing revenue to any person who satisfies a civil magistrate of the district in which the sale took place that he or she would have been entitled to receive the property referred to in this section after the attachment thereof had been withdrawn or the property had been released from attachment.

(Pending amendment: S. 71A. to be substituted by s. 44 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

72. Attachment of debts.—(1) The court may, on ex parte application by the judgment creditor or under section 65E (1) (b), order the attachment of any debt at present or in future owing or accruing to a judgment debtor by or from any other person (excluding the State), residing, carrying on business or employed in the district, to an amount sufficient to satisfy the judgment and the costs of the proceedings for attachment, whether such judgment has been obtained in such court or in any other magistrate's court, and may make an order (hereinafter called a garnishee order) against such person (hereinafter called the garnishee) to pay the judgment creditor or his attorney at the address of the judgment creditor or his attorney, so much of the debt as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment and costs, and may enforce such garnishee order as if it were a judgment of the court.

(1) The court may, on ex parte application by the judgment creditor or under section 65E (1) (b), order the attachment of any debt at present or in future owing or accruing to a judgment debtor by or from any other person (excluding the State), residing, carrying on business or employed in the area of jurisdiction of the court to an amount sufficient to satisfy the judgment and the costs of the proceedings for attachment, whether such judgment has been obtained in such court or in any other civil court, and may make an order (hereinafter called a garnishee order) against such person (hereinafter called the garnishee) to pay the judgment creditor or his attorney at the address of the judgment creditor or his attorney, so much of the debt as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment and costs, and may enforce such garnishee order as if it were a judgment of the court.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (1) to be amended by s. 45 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(2) If, after any such garnishee order in respect of any debt has been granted, it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that sufficient means to maintain himself and those dependent upon him will not, after satisfaction of the garnishee order, be left to the judgment debtor, the court shall set aside the garnishee order or amend it in such manner that it will affect only the balance of the debt over and above such sufficient means.

(3) Any order under this section may at any time for good cause be suspended, amended or rescinded by the court.

(4) The court may, if it appears that there are unsatisfied claims owing to other creditors, postpone the application to enable the judgment debtor to make application for an administration order under section 74.

[S. 72 substituted by s. 17 of Act No. 40 of 1952, amended by s. 26 of Act No. 93 of 1962 and substituted by s. 4 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

73. Suspension of execution of debt.—(1) The court may, on the application of any judgment debtor or under section 65E (1) (a) (ii) or 65E (1) (c) and if it appears to the court that the judgment debtor is unable to satisfy the judgment debt in full at once, but is able to pay reasonable periodical instalments towards satisfaction thereof or if the judgment debtor consents to a garnishee order being made against him or her, suspend execution against that debtor either wholly or in part on such conditions as to security or otherwise as the court may determine.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 18 of Act No. 40 of 1952 and substituted by s. 5 of Act No. 63 of 1976 and by s. 11 (b) of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

(2) Nothing in this section contained shall be construed as authorizing the court to suspend the execution of a judgment upon any property subject to a hypothec for the judgment debt existing irrespective of attachment in execution.

(3) An order under paragraph (e) of section forty-eight or under this section may at any time and for good cause be varied or rescinded by the court.

[S. 73 amended by s. 11 (a) of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74. Granting of administration orders.—(1) Where a debtor—

- (a) is unable forthwith to pay the amount of any judgment obtained against him in court, or to meet his financial obligations, and has not sufficient assets capable of attachment to satisfy such judgment or obligations; and
- (b) states that the total amount of all his debts due does not exceed the amount determined by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette,

such court or the court of the district in which the debtor resides or carries on business or is employed may, upon application by the debtor or under section 65I, subject to such conditions as the court may deem fit with regard to security, preservation or disposal of assets, realization of movables subject to hypothec (except movables referred to in section 34bis of the Land Bank Act, 1944 (Act No. 13 of 1944)), or otherwise, make an order (in this Act called an administration order) providing for the administration of his estate and for the payment of his debts in instalments or otherwise.

such court or the court of the district in which the debtor resides or carries on business or is employed may, upon application by the debtor or under section 65I, subject to such conditions as the court may deem fit with regard to security, preservation or disposal of assets, realization of movables subject to hypothec, or otherwise, make an order (in this Act called an administration order) providing for the administration of his estate and for the payment of his debts in instalments or otherwise.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (1) to be amended by s. 46 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(2) An administration order shall not be invalid merely because at some time or other the total amount of the debtor's debts are found to exceed the amount determined by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette, but in such a case the court may, if it deems fit, rescind the order.

[S. 74 amended by s. 19 of Act No. 40 of 1952, by s. 2 of Act No. 14 of 1954, by s. 27 of Act No. 93 of 1962, by s. 12 of Act No. 19 of 1963 and by s. 29 of Act No. 94 of 1974 and substituted by s. 6 of Act No. 63 of 1976. Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 6 (b) of Act No. 19 of 1985 and by s. 8 (b) of Act No. 25 of 1987.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74A. Documents to be submitted with application for administration order.—(1) With an application referred to in section 74 (1) the debtor shall submit a full statement of his affairs in the form prescribed in the rules.

(2) In the form referred to in subsection (1) provision shall be made for the following particulars, inter alia, namely—

- (a) the name and business address of the debtor's employer or, if the debtor is not employed, the reason why he is unemployed;

- (b) a detailed list of the debtor's assets and their current market values and full particulars of interests in property and claims in his favour, including moneys in a savings or other account with a bank or elsewhere;

(Editorial Note: Section 172 (2) of Act 34 of 2005 instructs substitution in paragraph (b) of "the credit agreement, as defined in section 1 of the National Credit Act, 2005" for "the credit transaction defined in section 1 of the Credit Agreements Act, 1980 (Act No. 75 of 1980)" and of "purchased under such credit agreement" for "purchased under that credit transaction". However, as the words do not appear in paragraph (b), we suggest that amendment to paragraph (g) was intended.)

- (c) the debtor's trade or occupation and his gross weekly or monthly income and that of his wife living with him, and particulars of all deductions from such income by stop order or otherwise, supported as far as possible by written statements by the employers of the debtor and his wife;
- (d) a detailed list of the debtor's essential weekly or monthly expenses and those of the persons dependent on him, including his own transport expenses and those of his wife to and from work, and those of his children to and from school;
- (e) a complete list of all the debtor's creditors and their addresses, and the amount owing to each creditor, in which a clear distinction shall be made between—
- (i) debts the whole amount of which is owing, including judgment debts payable in instalments in terms of a court order, an emoluments attachment order or a garnishee order; and
 - (ii) obligations which are payable in futuro in periodical payments or otherwise or which will become payable under a maintenance order, agreement, stop order or otherwise, and in which the nature of such periodical payments is specified in each case or when the obligations will be payable and how they are then to be paid, the balance owing in each case and when, in each case, the obligation will terminate;
- (f) the security and the estimated value of the security that a creditor has or the name and address of any other person who, in addition to the debtor, is liable for any debt;
- (g) full particulars, supported as far as possible by a statement and a copy of the credit transaction defined in section 1 of the Credit Agreements Act, 1980 (Act No. 75 of 1980), of goods purchased under such credit transaction, the purchase price, the instalments payable, the balance owing and the date on which the purchase price will be paid in full, and the reasons adduced by the debtor why provision should be made for the payment of the remaining instalments;

[Para. (g) substituted by s. 47 (a) of Act No. 120 of 1993.]

(Editorial Note: Section 172 (2) of Act 34 of 2005 instructs substitution in para. (b) for the words "the credit transaction defined in section 1 of the Credit Agreements Act, 1980 (Act No. 75 of 1980)" with the words "the credit agreement, as defined in section 1 of the National Credit Act, 2005"; and "purchased under such credit transaction" with the words "purchased under that credit agreement". However, as the words do not appear in para. (b), we suggest that amendment to para. (g) was intended.)

- (h) full particulars of any mortgage bond on immovable property owned by the debtor, the instalments payable, the balance owing, the date on which the mortgage debt will be paid in full and the reasons adduced by the debtor why provision should be made for the payment of the instalments payable in terms of such mortgage bond;
- (i) full particulars of any asset purchased under a written agreement other than a credit agreement referred to in paragraph (g), the instalments payable, the balance owing, and the date on which the purchase price will be paid in full, and the reasons adduced by the debtor why provision should be made for the payment of the instalments that become payable under such agreement;
- [Para. (i) amended by s. 47 (b) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and by s. 172 (2) of Act No. 34 of 2005.]
- (j) whether any administration order was made at any time in respect of the debtor's estate and, if so, whether such order lapsed or was set aside and, if so, when and for what reasons;
- (k) the number and ages of the persons dependent on the debtor and his wife and their kinship with them;
- (l) if an administration order is made, the amount of the weekly or monthly or other instalments which the debtor offers to pay towards settlement of the debts referred to in paragraph (e) (i).

(3) The statement referred to in subsection (1) shall be confirmed by an affidavit in which the debtor declares that to the best of his knowledge the names of all his creditors and the amounts owed by him to each of them severally are set forth in the statement and that the declarations made therein are true.

(4) The clerk of the court shall, if requested thereto by an illiterate debtor and upon payment of the fee prescribed in the rules, assist the debtor in completing the statement referred to in subsection (1).

(5) The debtor shall lodge an application for an administration order and the statement referred to in subsection (1) with the clerk of the court and shall deliver to each of his creditors, at least 3 days before the date appointed for the hearing, personally or by registered post a copy of such application and statement on which shall appear the case number under which the original application was filed.

[S. 74A inserted by s. 6 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74B. Hearing of application for administration order.—(1) At the hearing of an application for an administration order—

- (a) any creditor, whether he has received notice in terms of section 74A (5) or not, may attend the hearing and provide proof of his debt and object to any debt listed by the debtor in the statement of his affairs referred to in section 74A (1);
- (b) every debt listed by the debtor in the said statement shall be deemed to be proved, subject to any amendment made thereto by the court, unless any creditor raises objections thereto or the court rejects it or requires substantiation thereof by evidence;
- (c) any creditor to whose debt an objection is raised by the debtor or any other creditor or who is required by the court to substantiate his debt with evidence shall provide proof of debt;
- (d) the court may defer proof of debt and postpone consideration of the application for an administration order or proceed to deal with such application and, in an administration order is granted, the debt shall subsequently when proved be added to the debts listed;
- (e) the debtor may be interrogated by the court and by any creditor whose debt has been acknowledged or proved, or by leave of the court, by any creditor the proof of whose debt has been deferred, or by the legal representative of such creditor with regard to—
 - (i) his assets and liabilities;
 - (ii) his present and future income and that of his wife living with him;
 - (iii) his standard of living, and the possibility of economising; and
 - (iv) any other matter that the court may deem relevant.

(2) If at the hearing it appears to the court that any debt other than a debt on the ground of or arising from any judgment debt is a matter of contention between the debtor and the creditor or between the creditor and any other creditor of the debtor, the court may, upon inquiry into the objection, allow or reject the debt or a part thereof.

(3) Any person whose debt has been rejected in accordance with subsection (2) may, notwithstanding the provisions of section 74, institute proceedings or proceed with an action already instituted in respect of such debt.

(4) If any person referred to in subsection (3) has obtained judgment in respect of any debt referred to in that subsection, the amount of the judgment shall be added to the list of proved debts referred to in subsection (1).

(5) No administration order shall be granted at the request of any debtor if it is proved that any administration order was rescinded within the preceding period of 6 months because of the debtor's non-compliance therewith, unless the debtor proves to the satisfaction of the court that his non-compliance with the order was not wilful.

[S. 74B inserted by s. 6 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74C. Contents of administration order.—(1) An administration order shall be in the form prescribed by the rules and—

- (a) shall lay down the amount of the weekly or monthly or other payments to be made in terms thereof; and
- (b) may specify—
 - (i) the assets, if any, of the estate under administration which may be realized by the administrator for the purpose of distributing the proceeds among the creditors: Provided that no such asset that is the subject of a credit agreement regulated by the National Credit Act, 2005, shall be realized without the written permission of the seller;
[Proviso substituted by s. 48 (a) of Act No. 120 of 1993.]
 - (ii)
[Sub-para. (ii) deleted by s. 48 (b) of Act No. 120 of 1993.]
 - (iii) the debtor's obligations which the court took account of in determining the amount of the weekly or monthly or other instalments to be paid by the debtor to the administrator;
 - (iv) the assets, if any, which shall not be disposed of by the debtor except by leave of the administrator or the court;

(v) such other provisions or conditions as the court may deem necessary or expedient.

[Para. (b) amended by s. 172 (2) of Act No. 34 of 2005.]

(2) The amount of the weekly or monthly or other payments to be made by the debtor to the administrator in terms of the administration order shall, as nearly as possible, approximate the difference between the debtor's future income and the sum of—

- (a) the amount determined by the court as the reasonable amount required by the debtor for his necessary expenses and those of the persons dependent on him;
- (b) the periodical payments which the debtor is obliged to make under a credit agreement as defined in section 1 of the National Credit Act, 2005: Provided that the court may in its discretion refuse to take into account the periodical payments which the debtor undertook to pay under such a transaction for the purchase of goods which are not exempt from execution in terms of section 67 or which, in the opinion of the court, cannot be regarded as the debtor's household requirements, unless the court is of opinion that in all the circumstances it is desirable to safeguard the goods concerned;
[Para. (b) amended by s. 48 (c) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and by s. 172 (2) of Act No. 34 of 2005.]
- (c) the periodical payments to be made by the debtor in terms of an existing maintenance order;
- (d) the periodical payments to be made by the debtor under a mortgage bond or any other written agreement for the purchase of any asset in terms of which the liabilities thereunder are payable in instalments, if in all the circumstances the court is of opinion that the instalments payable are reasonable in view of the judgment debtor's income and the sums of money due by him to other creditors or that it is desirable to safeguard the mortgaged property or the asset to which the written agreement relates; and
- (e) the payments to be made by the debtor by virtue of any other obligation referred to in section 74A (2) (e) (ii).

(3) The court may take into account the income of the debtor's wife, who is living with him, in determining the amount referred to in subsection (2) (a) and, where the debtor is married in community of property, in determining the debtor's income.

[S. 74C inserted by s. 6 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74D. Authorizing of issue of emoluments attachment order or garnishee order.—Where the administration order provides for the payment of instalments out of future emoluments or income, the court shall authorize the issue of an emoluments attachment order in terms of section 65J in order to attach emoluments at present or in future owing or accruing to the debtor by or from his employer, or shall authorize the issue of a garnishee order under section 72 in order to attach any debt at present or in future owing or accruing to the debtor by or from any other person (excluding the State), in so far as either of the said sections is applicable, and the court may suspend such an authorization on such conditions as the court may deem just and reasonable.

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74E. Appointment of administrator.—(1) When an administration order has been granted under section 74 (1), the court shall appoint a person as administrator, which appointment shall become effective only after a copy of the administration order has been handed or sent to him by registered post and, in the event of his being required as administrator to give security, after he has given such security.

(2) An administrator may on good cause shown be relieved of his appointment by the court, and the court may appoint any other person in his place.

(3) An administrator who is not an officer of the court or a practitioner shall, before a copy of the administration order is handed or sent to him by registered post, give security to the satisfaction of the court and thereafter as required by the court for the due and prompt payment by him to the parties entitled thereto of all moneys which come into his possession by virtue of his appointment as an administrator.

(4) An administrator shall not be obliged to give security in respect of his appointment as an administrator of the estate of any particular debtor if he has given or gives security to the satisfaction of the court for the due and prompt payment by him to the parties entitled thereto of all moneys which may come into his possession by virtue of his appointment as administrator of the estate of any debtor, irrespective of whether such appointment was made before or after the date on which the said security was given.

[S. 74E inserted by s. 6 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74F. Notice of and objections to administration orders.—(1) A copy of an administration order shall be handed or sent by registered post to the debtor and the administrator by the clerk of the court.

(2) The administrator shall forward a copy of the administration order by registered post to each creditor whose name is mentioned by the debtor in the statement of his affairs or who has given proof of a debt.

(3) A creditor who has not received notice of the application for an administration order and who wishes to object to any debt listed with the order or to the manner in which payments shall be made in terms of the order shall, within a reasonable time as laid down in the rules, give notice of his objection and the grounds therefor to the clerk of the court, the debtor and the administrator and, if he objects to the inclusion of any debt, also to the creditor concerned.

(4) In considering the objection referred to in subsection (3) the court may—

- (a) uphold it;
- (b) refuse it; or
- (c) postpone consideration thereof for hearing after notice given to the persons concerned and on such conditions as to costs or otherwise as the court may deem fit.

[S. 74F inserted by s. 6 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74G. List of creditors and debts and additions thereto.—(1) The administrator shall as soon as may be drawn up and lodge with the clerk of the court a complete list on which shall appear the case number under which the application for an administration order has been filed, and which shall contain the names of the creditors and the amounts owing to them severally as at the date on which the administration order was granted.

(2) Any creditor who wishes to provide proof of a debt owing before the making of an administration order and not listed in such order, shall lodge his claim in writing with the administrator, who shall thereupon give the debtor notice thereof in the form prescribed in the rules.

(3) If, within the period allowed in the notice referred to in subsection (2), the debtor admits the claim or does not dispute it, the claim shall be deemed to be proved, subject to the right of any other creditor who has not received notice of the claim to object to the debt, and the administrator shall by notice lodged with the clerk of the court add the name of the creditor and the amount of the debt owing to him to the list referred to in subsection (1) and shall inform the creditor in the form prescribed in the rules that this has been done.

(4) If, within the period allowed in the notice referred to in subsection (2), the debtor gives notice in writing to the administrator that he disputes the claim, the administrator shall notify the creditor thereof and the creditor may request the clerk of the court to appoint a day and time for the hearing of the objection by the court and shall notify the debtor in writing of such day and time.

(5) At the hearing of the objection referred to in subsection (4) the court may—

- (a) refuse the claim as a whole;
- (b) allow the claim as a whole or in part;
- (c) require that the claim be supported by evidence; or
- (d) postpone the hearing on such conditions as it may deem fit.

(6) If the court allows a claim as a whole or in part under subsection (5), the debt shall, to the extent to which it has been allowed, be added to the list referred to in subsection (1).

(7) If any person who sold and delivered goods to the debtor under a credit agreement as defined in section 1 of the National Credit Act, 2005, before the administration order was granted, is entitled or becomes entitled, by reason of the debtor's failure to fulfil any obligation under such agreement, to demand immediate payment of the sum of the purchase price then still owing, and if such person advises the administrator in writing that he elects so to do, such agreement shall be deemed to create a hypothec on the goods in favour of the seller whereby the amount still owing to him in terms of the agreement is secured, and any term or condition of the agreement with regard to the seller's right to dissolve or terminate such agreement or his right to the return of the goods to which the agreement relates shall not, in consequence of the debtor's non-compliance with any term or condition thereof, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law contained, be enforceable.

[Sub-s. (7) substituted by s. 49 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and amended by s. 172 (2) of Act No. 34 of 2005.]

(8) The court may by order of court authorize the seller referred to in subsection (7) to take possession of the goods referred to in that subsection and to sell them by public auction by an auctioneer nominated by the court after giving the administrator and all the creditors written notice of the time and place of the sale and, if the court has so ordered, after publishing the notice or notices in the manner prescribed by the court, in one or more newspapers designated by the court or, if the seller, buyer and administrator so agree, to sell them by private treaty.

(9) Where the seller has sold the goods in terms of a court order referred to in subsection (8) he shall, if the sale was by public auction, forthwith lodge the auction list with the administrator and pay to the administrator the amount of the proceeds of the sale in excess of the amount of his debt and the costs connected with the sale or, if the net proceeds of the sale are insufficient to pay his debt in full, he may lodge a claim with the administrator in respect of the balance of the purchase price owing to him for inclusion in the list of creditors who are entitled to share in the pro rata distribution of funds received by the administrator.

(10) (a) The list of creditors referred to in subsection (1) shall be open to inspection by the creditors or their attorneys in the office of the clerk of the court and the office of the administrator at any time during office hours.

(b) Any creditor may, in the manner and within the period prescribed in the rules, object to any debt included in the list of creditors.

[S. 74G inserted by s. 6 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74H. Inclusion of creditors in list after granting of administration order.—(1) Any person who becomes a creditor of the judgment debtor after an administration order has been granted and who is desirous of providing proof of debt, shall lodge his claim in writing with the administrator, who shall thereupon advise the debtor thereof in the form prescribed in the rules.

(2) If the debtor admits the claim or does not dispute it within the period allowed in the notice referred to in subsection (1), the provisions of section 74G (3) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply, but the creditor shall not be entitled to a dividend in terms of the administration order until the creditors who were creditors on the date of the granting of the order have been paid in full.

(3) If the debtor disputes the claim within the period allowed in the notice referred to in subsection (1), the provisions of section 74G (4), (5) and (6) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply but if the court allows the claim as a whole or in part, such claim shall be subject to the rights referred to in subsection (2), of creditors who were creditors on the date on which the administration order was granted.

(4) The provisions of section 74G (7), (8) and (9) and of subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to any person who after the granting of an administration order sold and delivered goods to the debtor under a credit agreement as defined in section 1 of the National Credit Act, 2005, and is desirous of providing proof of debt.

[S. 74H inserted by s. 6 of Act No. 63 of 1976. Sub-s. (4) substituted by s. 50 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and amended by s.172 (2) of Act No. 34 of 2005.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74I. Payments by debtor in terms of administration order.—(1) The debtor shall, subject to the provisions of this section, pay the administrator the amounts of the weekly or monthly or other payments that he is required to make in terms of the administration order.

(2) If a debtor fails to make the payments to the administrator that he is required to make in terms of the administration order, the provisions of sections 65A to 65L shall mutatis mutandis apply, while any reference in the said provisions to the judgment concerned, the judgment creditor or the judgment debtor shall be construed as a reference to the administration order concerned, the administrator or the debtor, respectively.

(3) If, in addition to the administration order, the court has authorised the issue of an emoluments attachment order to a garnishee order and has suspended such authorization conditionally and the debtor fails to comply with the conditions of suspension, the administrator may lodge a certificate to this effect with the clerk of the court, and the clerk of the court shall thereupon issue the emoluments attachment order or garnishee order, as the case may be.

(4) An emoluments attachment order or garnishee order referred to in subsection (3) shall be prepared by the administrator or his attorney, shall be signed by the administrator or his attorney and the clerk of the court, and shall be served on the garnishee by the messenger of the court by registered post.

(4) An emoluments attachment order or garnishee order referred to in subsection (3) shall be prepared by the administrator or his attorney, shall be signed by the administrator or his attorney and the clerk of the court, and shall be served on the garnishee by the sheriff by registered post.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (4) to be amended by s. 51 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(5) (a) When an emoluments attachment order or garnishee order referred to in subsection (3) has been served on the garnishee, he shall be obliged to pay to the administrator the amounts concerned as provided by the order and such payments shall constitute a first preference against the debtor's income.

(b) The provisions of section 65J (4) to (8) and (10) shall mutatis mutandis apply to the emoluments attachment order referred to in paragraph (a), and in such application any reference in the said provisions to the judgment creditor shall be construed as a reference to the administrator.

[S. 74I inserted by s. 6 of Act No. 63 of 1976. Para. (b) substituted by s. 4 of Act No. 28 of 1981.]

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

74J. Duties of administrator.—(1) An administrator shall collect the payments to be made in terms of the administration order concerned and shall keep up to date a list (which shall be available for inspection, free of charge, by the debtor and creditors or their attorneys during office hours) of all payments and other funds received by him from or on behalf of the debtor, indicating the amount and date of each payment, and shall, subject to section 74L, distribute such payments pro rata among the creditors at least once every three months, unless all the creditors otherwise agree or the court otherwise orders in any particular case.

(2) If any debt or the balance of a debt be less than R10, the administrator may in his discretion pay such debt in full if such action will facilitate the distribution of funds in his possession.

(3) Claims that would enjoy preference under the laws relating to insolvency shall be paid out in the order prescribed by those laws.

(4) An administrator may, out of the moneys which he controls, pay any urgent or extraordinary medical, dental or hospital expenses incurred by the debtor after the date of the administration order.

(5) Every distribution account in respect of the periodical payments and other funds received by an administrator shall be numbered consecutively, shall bear the case number under which the administration order has been filed, shall be in the form prescribed in the rules, shall be signed by the administrator and shall be lodged at the office of the clerk of the court where it may be inspected free of charge by the debtor and the creditors or their attorneys during office hours.

(6) A distribution account referred to in subsection (5) shall at the request of any interested party be subject to review free of charge by any judicial officer.

[Sub-s. (6) substituted by s. 2 of Act No. 88 of 1996.]

(6) A distribution account referred to in subsection (5) shall at the request of any interested party be subject to review free of charge by any civil magistrate.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (6) to be amended by s. 52 (a) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(7) An administrator shall deposit all moneys received by him from or on behalf of debtors whose estates are under administration—

(a) if he is not a practising attorney, in a separate trust account with any bank in the Republic, and no amount with which any such account is credited shall be deemed to be part of the administrator's assets or, in the event of his death or insolvency, of his deceased or insolvent estate;

(b) if he is a practising attorney, in the trust account that he keeps in terms of section 33 of the Attorneys, Notaries and Conveyancers Admission Act, 1934 (Act No. 23 of 1934).

(b) if he is a practising attorney, in the trust account that he keeps in terms of section 78 of the Attorneys Act, 1979 (Act No. 53 of 1979).

(Pending amendment: Para (b) to be substituted by s. 52 (b) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(8) If a debtor should at any time, despite a registered letter of demand from the administrator, be 14 days in arrear with the payment of any instalment and if steps in terms of section 74I (3) cannot be taken or have been taken unsuccessfully, or if the debtor had disappeared, the administrator shall forthwith notify the creditors in writing thereof and request their instructions.

(9) If within the period allowed in a notice contemplated in subsection (8) the majority of the creditors instruct him to do so, or fail to respond, the administrator shall institute legal proceedings against the debtor for his committal for contempt of court or take such steps as may be necessary to trace the debtor who has disappeared, as the circumstances may require.

(10) If within the period allowed in a notice contemplated in subsection (8) the majority of the creditors instruct him to do so, the administrator shall apply to the court for the rescission of the administration order.

(11) If an administrator fails to lodge a distribution account with the clerk of the court within one month from the time his obligation to do so commenced, any interested party may apply to the court for an order directing him to lodge a distribution account with the clerk of the court within the time laid down in the order or relieving him of his office as administrator.

(12) If an administrator has lodged a distribution account with the clerk of the court but has failed to pay any amount of money due to any creditor in terms of such account within one month thereafter, the court may upon the application of the creditor order the administrator to pay the creditor the amount concerned within such period as may be fixed in the order and furthermore to pay to the debtor's estate an amount which is double the amount which he failed so to pay.

(13) The court may order an administrator to pay the costs of an application in terms of subsection (11) or (12) de bonis propriis.

(14) If any debt which was due at the time of the granting of an administration order in respect of a debtor's estate is paid in full or in part to the creditor by the debtor after the granting of the order, otherwise than by way of payments in terms of the administration order, such payment shall be invalid and the administrator may recover the amount paid from the creditor, unless the creditor proves that the payment was effected without his knowledge of the administration order, and, in addition, the creditor shall forfeit his claim against the estate of the debtor if the payment was effected at the request of the creditor whilst he had knowledge of the administration order.

74K. Realization of assets by administrator.—(1) An administrator may, if authorized thereto by the court, subject to the provisions of subsection (2), realize any asset of the estate under administration, and in granting any such authorization the court may impose any such conditions as it may deem fit.

(2) An asset mentioned in subsection (1) which is the subject of a credit agreement regulated by the National Credit Act, 2005, shall not be realized except with the written permission of the credit provider.

[Sub-s. (2) amended by s. 172 (2) of Act No. 34 of 2005.]

(3) If the credit provider as defined in section 1 of the National Credit Act, 2005, is obliged to pay to the debtor an amount in terms of the said Act, that amount shall be paid to the administrator for pro rata distribution among the creditors.

[Sub-s. (3) amended by s. 172 (2) of Act No. 34 of 2005.]

(4) Whenever the court authorizes any administrator to realize any asset, the court may amend the payments to be made in terms of the administration order accordingly.

74L. Remuneration and expenses of administrator.—(1) An administrator may, before making a distribution

- (a) deduct from the money collected his necessary expenses and a remuneration determined in accordance with a tariff prescribed in the rules;
- (b) retain a portion of the money collected, in the manner and up to an amount prescribed in the rules, to cover the costs that he may have to incur if the debtor is in default or disappears.

(2) The expenses and remuneration mentioned in subsection (1) (a) shall not exceed 12½ per cent of the amount of collected moneys received and such expenses and remuneration shall, upon application by any interested party, be subject to taxation by the clerk of the court and review by any judicial officer.

[S. 74L inserted by s. 6 of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

(2) The expenses and remuneration mentioned in subsection (1) (a) shall not exceed 12½ per cent of the amount of collected moneys received and such expenses and remuneration shall, upon application by any interested party, be subject to taxation by the clerk of the court and review by any civil magistrate.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (6) to be amended by s. 54 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

74P. Remedies restricted by administration order.—(1) As long as any administration order is of force and effect in respect of the estate of any debtor, no creditor shall have any remedy against the debtor or his property for collecting money owing, except in regard to any mortgage bond or any debt referred to in section 74B (3) or by leave of the court and on such conditions as the court may impose.

(2) Any court in which proceedings have been instituted against a debtor in respect of any debt except a debt due under a mortgage bond or a debt referred to in section 74B (3) shall, upon receiving notice of the administration order, suspend such proceedings but may grant costs already incurred by the creditor, and such costs may be added to the judgment debt.

74Q. Suspension, amendment or rescission of administration order.—(1) The court under whose supervision any administration order is being executed, may at any time upon application by the debtor or any interested party re-open the proceedings and call upon the debtor to appear for such further examination as the court may deem necessary, and the court may thereupon on good cause shown suspend, amend or rescind the administration order, and when it suspends such an order it may impose such conditions as it may deem just and reasonable.

(2) The court may at any time at the request of the administrator in writing and with the written consent of the debtor, amend an administration order.

(3) Upon any application for the rescission of an administration order the court may—

- (a) rescind the order under subsection (1); or
- (b) if it appears to the court that the debtor is unable to pay any instalment, suspend the order for such period and on such conditions as it may deem fit or amend the instalments to be paid in terms thereof and make the necessary amendments to any emoluments attachment order or garnishee order issued so as to ensure payment in terms of the administration order, or set aside the said emoluments attachment order or garnishee order; or
- (c) authorize the issue of an emoluments attachment order or garnishee order to ensure the payments in terms of the administration order; or
- (d) set aside or amend any emoluments attachment order or garnishee order issued so as to ensure payments in terms of the administration order.

(4) Any order rescinding an administration order shall be in the form prescribed in the rules and a copy thereof shall be delivered personally or sent by post by the administrator to the debtor and to each creditor, who shall also be informed of the debtor's last known address by the administrator.

(5) When an order of court for the payment of any judgment debt in instalments or any emoluments attachment order or garnishee order has lapsed in consequence of the granting of an administration order and such judgment debt has not been paid in full upon the rescission of the administration order, such court order, emoluments attachment order or garnishee order shall revive in respect of such judgment debt, unless the court otherwise orders.

76. Execution or payment is discharge pro tanto.—Payment made by or execution levied upon the garnishee under the provisions of this Act shall be valid discharge of the debt or amount of emoluments due from him to the judgment debtor to the extent of the amount paid or levied.

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

77. Saving of existing laws prohibiting attachment.—Save where under section 65E (1) an order may be granted against the State, nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as authorizing the attachment of any debt or emoluments or any moneys or property specially declared by any law not to be liable to attachment.

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

78. Execution or suspension in case of appeal, etc.—Where an appeal has been noted or an application to rescind, correct or vary a judgment has been made, the court may direct either that the judgment shall be carried into execution or that execution thereof shall be suspended pending the decision upon the appeal or application. The direction shall be made upon such terms, if any, as the court may determine as to security for the due performance of any judgment which may be given upon the appeal or application.

(General Note: Conflicting legislation: S. 172 (1) of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 determines that the provisions of Part D of Ch. 4, ss. 127, 129, 131, 132, Ch. 7 and s. 164 of the National Credit Act, No. 34 of 2005 prevail to the extent of the conflict.)

79. Person who has made a nulla bona return not to incur debts.—Any person shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding R300 if after a return of nulla bona has been made in respect of a judgment against him and before satisfaction of the said judgment, he obtains credit to an amount or amounts exceeding one hundred rand in the aggregate without previously informing all person from whom he so obtains credit that there is an unsatisfied judgment against him and that a return of nulla bona has been made in respect thereof.

[S. 79 amended by s. 13 of Act No. 19 of 1963 and by s. 6 of Act No. 91 of 1977 and substituted by s. 8 of Act No. 19 of 1985.]

CHAPTER X COSTS

80. Costs to be in accordance with scales and to be taxed.—(1) The stamps, fees, costs and charges in connection with any civil proceedings in magistrates' courts shall, as between party and party, be payable in accordance with the scales prescribed by the rules.

(1) The stamps, fees, costs and charges in connection with any civil proceedings in civil courts shall, as between party and party, be payable in accordance with the scales prescribed by the rules.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s (1) to be substituted by s. 56 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(2) As between attorney and client, the clerk of the court may in his discretion (subject to the review hereinafter mentioned) allow costs and charges for services reasonably performed by the attorney at the request of the client for which no remuneration is recoverable as between party and party and for which no provision is made in the rules.

(3) Payment of costs awarded by the court (otherwise than by a judgment in default of the defendant's appearance to defend or on the defendant's consent to judgment before the time for such appearance has expired) may not be enforced until they have been taxed by the clerk of the court.

(4) Any person who is liable to pay or who is sued for costs of any civil proceedings in a court otherwise than under an award by the court or under a special agreement, may require that those costs shall be taxed by the clerk of the court as between attorney and client; and thereupon any action for the recovery of those costs shall be stayed pending the taxation. The costs of and incidental to such a taxation shall be borne, if not more than one-sixth of such costs is disallowed on taxation, by the person requiring the taxation, and, if more than one-sixth is so disallowed, by the person claiming the costs.

81. Review of taxation.—Taxation by the clerk of the court shall be subject to review free of charge by a judicial officer of the district; and the decision of such judicial officer may at any time within one month thereafter be brought in review before a judge of the court of appeal in the manner prescribed by the rules.

81. Review of taxation.—Taxation by the clerk of the court shall be subject to review free of charge by a judicial officer of the court; and the decision of such judicial officer may at any time within one month thereafter be brought in review before a judge of the court of appeal in the manner prescribed by the rules.

(Pending amendment: S. 81 to be amended by s. 57 of Act No. 120 of 1993 with and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

CHAPTER XI APPEAL AND REVIEW

82. By consent, decision of magistrate's court be final.—No appeal shall lie from the decision of a court if, before the hearing is commenced, the parties lodge with the court an agreement in writing that the decision of the court shall be final.

83. Appeal from magistrate's court.—Subject to the provisions of section 82, a party to any civil suit or proceeding in a court may appeal to the provincial or local division of the Supreme Court having jurisdiction to hear the appeal, against—

- (a) any judgment of the nature described in section 48;
- (b) any rule or order made in such suit or proceeding and having the effect of a final judgment, including any order under Chapter IX and any order as to costs;

- (c) any decision overruling an exception, when the parties concerned consent to such an appeal before proceeding further in an action or when it is appealed from in conjunction with the principal case, or when it includes an order as to costs.

[S. 83 substituted by s. 16 of Act No. 15 of 1969 and amended by s. 2 of Act No. 105 of 1982.]

84. Time, manner and conditions of appeal.—Every party so appealing shall do so within the period and in the manner prescribed by the rules; but the court of appeal may in any case extend such period.

85. No preemption of appeal by satisfaction of judgment.—A party shall not lose the right to appeal through satisfying or offering to satisfy the judgment in respect of which he appeals or any part thereof or by accepting any benefit from such judgment, decree or order.

86. Respondent may abandon judgment.—(1) A party may by notice in writing abandon the whole or any part of a judgment in his favour.

(2) Where the party so abandoning was the plaintiff, or applicant, judgment in respect of the part abandoned shall be entered for the defendant or respondent with costs.

(3) Where the party so abandoning was the defendant or respondent, judgment in respect of the part abandoned shall be entered for the plaintiff or applicant in terms of the claim in the summons or application.

(4) A judgment so entered shall have the same effect in all respects as if it had been the judgment originally pronounced by the court in the action or matter.

(5) If a party abandons a judgment given in his or her favour because the judgment debt, the interest thereon at the rate granted in the judgment and the costs have been paid, no judgment referred to in subsection (2) or (3) shall be entered in favour of the other party.

[Sub-s. (5) added by s. 12 of Act No. 7 of 2017.]

87. Procedure of court of appeal.—The court of appeal may—

- (a) confirm, vary or reverse the judgment appealed from, as justice may require;
- (b) if the record does not furnish sufficient evidence or information for the determination of the appeal, remit the matter to the court from which the appeal is brought, with instructions in regard to the taking of further evidence or the setting aside out of further information;
- (c) order the parties or either of them to produce at some convenient time in the court of appeal such further proof as shall to it seem necessary or desirable; or
- (d) take any other course which may lead to the just, speedy and as much as may be inexpensive settlement of the case; and
- (e) make such order as to costs as justice may require.

88. Execution of judgment of court of appeal.—The judgment of the court of appeal shall be recorded in the court appealed from, and may be enforced as if it had been given in such last-mentioned court.

PART III —CRIMINAL MATTERS

CHAPTER XII CRIMINAL JURISDICTION

89. Jurisdiction in respect of offences.—(1) The court, other than the court of a regional division, shall have jurisdiction over all offences, except treason, murder, rape and compelled rape as contemplated in sections 3 and 4 of the Criminal Law (Sexual Offences and Related Matters) Amendment Act, 2007, respectively.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 68 of Act No. 32 of 2007.]

(2) The court of a regional division shall have jurisdiction over all offences except treason.

[S. 89 substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 75 of 1959. Sub-s. (2) amended by s. 7 of Act No. 91 of 1977 and substituted by s. 17 of Act No. 107 of 1990.]

89. Jurisdiction in respect of offences.—(1) The magistrate's court shall have jurisdiction over all offences except treason, murder and rape.

(2) The regional court shall have jurisdiction over all offences except treason.

(Pending amendment: S. 89 to be substituted by s. 58 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

90. Local limits of jurisdiction.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section eighty-nine, any person charged with any offence committed within any district or regional division may be tried by the court of that district or of that regional division, as the case may be.

(2) When any person is charged with any offence—

- (a) committed within the distance of four kilometres beyond the boundary of the district or of the regional division; or

[Para. (a) amended by s. 8 (a) of Act No. 91 of 1977.]

- (b) committed in or upon any vehicle on a journey which or part whereof was performed in, or within the distance of four kilometres of, the district or the regional division; or

[Para. (b) amended by s. 8 (a) of Act No. 91 of 1977.]

- (c) committed on board any vessel on a journey upon any river within the Republic or forming the boundary of any portion thereof, and such journey or part thereof was performed in, or within the distance of four kilometres of, the district or the regional division; or

[Para. (c) amended by s. 8 (a) of Act No. 91 of 1977.]

- (d) committed on board any vessel on a voyage within the territorial waters of the Republic (including the territory of South-West Africa), and the said territorial waters adjoin the district or the regional division; or

- (d) committed on board any vessel on a voyage within the territorial waters of the Republic, and the said territorial waters adjoin the district or the regional division; or

(Pending amendment: Para (d) to be substituted by s. 59 (a) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

- (e) begun or completed within the district or within the regional division, such person may be tried by the court of the district or of the regional division, as the case may be, as if he had been charged with an offence committed within the district or within the regional division respectively.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 3 of Act No. 17 of 1969.]

(3) Where it is uncertain in which of several jurisdictions an offence has been committed, it may be tried in any of such jurisdictions.

(4) A person charged with an offence may be tried by the court of any district, or any regional division, as the case may be, wherein any act or omission or event which is an element of the offence took place.

(5) A person charged with theft of property or with obtaining property by an offence, or with an offence which involves the receiving of any property by him, may also be tried by the court of any district or of any regional division, as the case may be, wherein he has or had part of the property in his possession.

(6) A person charged with kidnapping, child-stealing or abduction may also be tried by the court of any district or of any regional division, as the case may be, through or in which he conveyed or concealed or detained the person kidnapped, stolen or abducted.

(7) Where by any special provision of law a magistrate's court has jurisdiction in respect of an offence committed beyond the local limits of the district, or of the regional division, as the case may be, such court shall not be deprived of such jurisdiction by any of the provisions of this section.

(7) Where by any special provision of law a court has jurisdiction in respect of an offence committed beyond the local limits of the district, or of the regional division, as the case may be, such court shall not be deprived of such jurisdiction by any of the provisions of this section.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (7) to be amended by s. 59 (b) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(8) Where an accused is alleged to have committed various offences within different districts within the area of jurisdiction of any attorney-general, the attorney-general concerned may in writing direct that criminal proceedings in respect of such various offences be commenced in the court of any particular district within his area of jurisdiction, whereupon such court shall have jurisdiction to act with regard to any such offence as if such offence had been committed within the area of jurisdiction of that court, and the court of the regional division within whose area of jurisdiction the court of such district is situated, shall likewise have jurisdiction in respect of any such offence if such offence is an offence which may be tried by the court of a regional division.

[Sub-s. (8) substituted by s. 8 (b) of Act No. 91 of 1977.]

(8) Where an accused is alleged to have committed various offences within different districts within the area of jurisdiction of any attorney-general, the attorney-general concerned may in writing direct that criminal proceedings in respect of such various offences be commenced in any particular magistrate's court within his area of jurisdiction, whereupon such court shall have jurisdiction to act with regard to any such offence as if such offence had been committed within the area of jurisdiction of that court, and the regional court within whose area of jurisdiction such magistrate's court is situated, shall likewise have jurisdiction in respect of any such offence if such offence is an offence which may be tried by a regional court.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (8) to be substituted by s. 59 (c) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(9) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the provisions of section 125 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of the trial of any person by any court.

[S. 90 substituted by s. 20 of Act No. 40 of 1952. Sub-s. (9) added by s. 2 of Act No. 75 of 1959 and substituted by s. 8 (b) of Act No. 91 of 1977.]

91. Criminal jurisdiction of periodical court.—The jurisdiction of the periodical court in criminal matters shall be subject, mutatis mutandis, to the provisions contained in section twenty-seven and in subsection (3) of section thirty-five.

91. Criminal jurisdiction of periodical courts.—(1) (a) The court of the district within which an area is situate for which a periodical court has been established, shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the periodical court within such portion of that area as is situate within such district.

(b) No person shall, without his consent, be liable to appear as an accused before any periodical court unless he resides nearer to the place where the periodical court is held than to the seat of magistracy of the district.

(2) A criminal case that has been instituted in a periodical court may, subject to the provisions of subsection (1) (b), in the discretion of the court be transferred to the court of the district and vice versa.

(Pending amendment: S. 91 to be substituted by s. 60 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

92. Limits of jurisdiction in the matter of punishments.—(1) Save as otherwise in this Act or in any other law specially provided, the court, whenever it may punish a person for an offence—

(a) by imprisonment, may impose a sentence of imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years, where the court is not the court of a regional division, or not exceeding 15 years, where the court is the court of a regional division;

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 9 of Act No. 91 of 1977 and by s. 6 of Act No. 66 of 1998.]

(a) by imprisonment, may impose a sentence of imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months, if the court is a magistrate's court, or not exceeding 10 years, if the court is a regional court;

(Pending amendment: Para. (a) to be substituted by s. 61 (a) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

(b) by fine, may impose a fine not exceeding the amount determined by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette for the respective courts referred to in paragraph (a);

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 9 of Act No. 91 of 1977, by s. 1 of Act No. 109 of 1984 and by s. 9 of Act No. 25 of 1987.]

[Para. (c) deleted by s. 2 of Act No. 33 of 1997.]

(d) by correctional supervision, may impose correctional supervision for a period as contemplated in

(2) (a) The court shall have jurisdiction to impose any punishment prescribed in respect of an offence under an ordinance of a province or the territory which relates to vehicles and the regulation of traffic on public roads, notwithstanding that such punishment exceeds the jurisdiction referred to in subsection (1).

(b) Where a person is convicted of culpable homicide arising out of the driving of a vehicle as defined in any applicable ordinance referred to in paragraph (a), the court shall have jurisdiction to impose any punishment which the court may impose under that paragraph in respect of the offence of driving a vehicle recklessly on a public road.

[S. 92 amended by s. 21 of Act No. 40 of 1952, substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 16 of 1959, amended by s. 14 of Act No. 19 of 1963 and substituted by s. 30 of Act No. 94 of 1974.]

(2) (a) The magistrate's court shall have jurisdiction to impose any punishment prescribed in respect of an offence under any law which relates to vehicles and the regulation of traffic on public roads, notwithstanding that such punishment exceeds the jurisdiction referred to in subsection (1).

(b) Where a person is convicted of culpable homicide arising out of the driving of a vehicle as defined in any applicable law referred to in paragraph (a), the magistrate's court shall have jurisdiction to impose any punishment which the court may impose under that paragraph in respect of the offence of driving a vehicle recklessly on a public road.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (2) to be substituted by s. 61 (b) of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

93.

[S. 93 amended by s. 22 of Act No. 40 of 1952, by s. 24 of Act No. 62 of 1955 and by s. 12 of Act No. 80 of 1964 and repealed by s. 344 (1) of Act No. 51 of 1977.]

93bis.

[S. 93bis inserted by s. 23 of Act No. 40 of 1952, substituted by s. 31 of Act No. 70 of 1968 and by s. 18 of Act No. 53 of 1970 and repealed by s. 344 (1) of Act No. 51 of 1977.]

93ter. Magistrate may be assisted by assessors.—(1) The judicial officer presiding at any trial may, if he deems it expedient for the administration of justice—

- (a) before any evidence has been led; or
- (b) in considering a community-based punishment in respect of any person who has been convicted of any offence, summon to his assistance any one or two persons who, in his opinion, may be of assistance at the trial of the case or in the determination of a proper sentence, as the case may be, to sit with him as assessor or assessors: Provided that if an accused is standing trial in the court of a regional division on a charge of murder, whether together with other charges or accused or not, the judicial officer shall at that trial be assisted by two assessors unless such an accused requests that the trial be proceeded with without assessors whereupon the judicial officer may in his discretion summon one or two assessors to assist him.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 10 (a) of Act No. 91 of 1977 and by s. 1 (a) of Act No. 118 of 1991.]

(1) The judicial officer presiding at any trial may, if he deems it expedient for the administration of justice—

- (a) before any evidence has been led; or
- (b) in considering a community-based punishment in respect of any person who has been convicted of any offence, summon to his assistance any one or two persons who, in his opinion, may be of assistance at the trial of the case or in the determination of a proper sentence, as the case may be, to sit with him as assessor or assessors: Provided that if an accused is standing trial in any regional court on a charge of murder, whether together with other charges or accused or not, the judicial officer shall at that trial be assisted by two assessors unless such an accused requests that the trial be proceeded with without assessors whereupon the judicial officer may in his discretion summon one or two assessors to assist him.

(Pending amendment: Sub-s. (1) to be amended by s. 62 of Act No. 120 of 1993 and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not determined.)

(2) (a) In considering whether summoning assessors under subsection (1) would be expedient for the administration of justice, the judicial officer shall take into account—

- (i) the cultural and social environment from which the accused originates;
- (ii) the educational background of the accused;
- (iii) the nature and the seriousness of the offence of which the accused stands accused or has been convicted;
- (iv) the extent or probable extent of the punishment to which the accused will be exposed upon conviction, or is exposed, as the case may be;
- (v) any other matter or circumstance which he may deem to be indicative of the desirability of summoning an assessor or assessors, and he may question the accused in relation to the matters referred to in this paragraph.

(b) For the purposes of subsection (1) (b) a community-based punishment means—

- (i) correctional supervision as defined in section 1 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977);
- (ii) a punishment contemplated in section 297 (1) (a) (i) (cc) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977; or
- (iii) a punishment contemplated in section 297 (1) (b) or (4) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, and where the performance of community service as referred to in the said section 297 (1) (a) (i) (cc), is a condition for the suspension.

[Sub-s. (2) amended by s. 2 (a) of Act No. 16 of 1959, deleted by s. 10 (b) of Act No. 91 of 1977 and inserted by s. 1 (b) of Act No. 118 of 1991.]

(3) Before the trial or the imposition of punishment, as the case may be, the said judicial officer shall administer an oath to the person or persons whom he has so called to his assistance that he or they will give a true verdict, or a considered opinion, as the case may be, according to the evidence upon the issues to be tried or regarding the punishment, as the case may be, and thereupon he or they shall be a member or members of the court subject to the following provisions:

- (a) any matter of law arising for decision at such trial, and any question arising thereat as to whether a matter for decision is a matter of fact or a matter of law, shall be decided by the presiding judicial officer and no assessor shall have a voice in any such decision;
- (b) the presiding judicial officer may adjourn the argument upon any such matter or question as is mentioned in paragraph (a) and may sit alone for the hearing of such argument and the decision of such matter or question;
- (c) whenever the said judicial officer shall give a decision in terms of paragraph (a) he shall give his reasons for that decision;
- (d) upon all matters of fact the decision or finding of the majority of the members of the court shall be the decision or finding of the court, except when only one assessor sits with the presiding judicial officer in which case the decision or finding of such judicial officer shall be the decision or finding of the court if there is a difference of opinion;
- (e) it shall be incumbent on the court to give reasons for its decision or finding on any matter made under paragraph (d);
- (f) in the event of a conviction the question of the punishment to be inflicted shall, except in a case contemplated in subsection (1) (b) be deemed, for the purposes of paragraph (a), to be a question of law.

[Sub-s. (3) amended by s. 1 (c) of Act No. 118 of 1991. Para (f) substituted by s. 1 (d) of Act No. 118 of 1991.]

(4) If any such assessor is not a person employed in a full-time capacity in the service of the State he shall be entitled to such compensation as the Minister, in consultation with the Minister of Finance, may determine in respect of expenses incurred by him in connection with his attendance at the trial, and in respect of his services as assessor.

[Sub-s. (4) substituted by s. 10 (c) of Act No. 91 of 1977.]

(5) Every assessor shall, upon registration on the roll of assessors referred to in subsection (1), in writing take an oath or make an affirmation subscribed by him or her before the magistrate of the district concerned in the form set out below, namely—

"I (full name) do hereby swear/solemnly affirm that whenever I may be called upon to perform the functions of an assessor in terms of section 93ter of the Magistrates' Courts Act, 1944, I shall to the best of my ability make a considered finding or decision, or give a considered opinion, as the case may be, according to the evidence tendered in the matter."

[Sub-s. (5) added by s. 2 (b) of Act No. 16 of 1959 and substituted by s. 10 (d) of Act No. 91 of 1977 and by s. 2

(10) (a) A judicial officer who is assisted by an assessor may, on application by the prosecutor or the accused person, order the recusal of the assessor from the proceedings if the judicial officer is satisfied that—

- (i) the assessor has a personal interest in the proceedings concerned;
- (ii) there are reasonable grounds for believing that there is likely to be a conflict of interests as a result of the assessor's participation in the proceedings concerned; or
- (iii) there are reasonable grounds for believing that there is a likelihood of bias on the part of the assessor.

(b) An assessor may recuse himself or herself from the proceedings for the reasons contemplated in paragraph (a).

(c) The prosecutor and the accused person shall—

- (i) before the recusal of an assessor is ordered in terms of paragraph (a); or
- (ii) in so far as it is practicable, before the recusal of an assessor in terms of paragraph (b), be given an opportunity to address arguments to the judicial officer on the desirability of such recusal.

(d) The assessor concerned shall be given an opportunity to respond to any arguments referred to in paragraph (c), and the judicial officer may put such questions regarding the matter to the assessor as he or she may deem fit.

(e) The judicial officer shall give reasons for an order referred to in paragraph (a).

[Sub-s. (10) inserted by s. 2 of Act No. 67 of 1998 with effect from a date determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette: 20 April, 2000 (Proc R.24 in Government Gazette 21124 of 20 April, 2000.)]

(11) (a) If an assessor—

- (i) dies;
- (ii) in the opinion of the presiding officer becomes unable to act as an assessor;
- (iii) is for any reason absent; or
- (iv) has been ordered to recuse himself or herself or has recused himself or herself in terms of subsection (10), at any stage before the completion of the proceedings concerned, the presiding judicial officer may, in the interests of justice and after due consideration of the arguments put forward by the accused person and the prosecutor—

- (aa) direct that the proceedings continue before the remaining member or members of the court;
- (bb) direct that the proceedings start afresh; or
- (cc) in the circumstances contemplated in subparagraph (iii), postpone the proceedings in order to obtain the assessor's presence:

Provided that if the accused person has legal representation and the prosecutor and the accused person consent thereto, the proceedings shall, in the circumstances contemplated in subparagraphs (i), (ii) or (iv), continue before the remaining member or members of the court.

(b) If, at proceedings which are continued in terms of this subsection, the judicial officer is assisted by the remaining assessor, the finding or decision of the judicial officer shall, in respect of any matter where there is a difference of opinion between the judicial officer and the assessor, be the finding or decision of the court.

(c) The judicial officer shall give reasons for any direction referred to in paragraph (a), and for any finding or decision referred to in paragraph (b).

[S. 93ter inserted by s. 3 of Act No. 14 of 1954. Sub-s. (11) inserted by s. 2 of Act No. 67 of 1998 with effect from a date determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette: 20 April, 2000 (Proc R.24 in Government Gazette 21124 of 20 April, 2000.)]

93ter. Magistrate to be assisted by assessors at certain criminal proceedings.—(1) In this section 'assessor' means a person whose name is registered on a roll of assessors, in terms of a regulation referred to in section 93quat.

(2) A judicial officer shall be assisted by two assessors at the trial of an accused person in respect of any offence referred to in Schedule 2.

(3) The judicial officer presiding at—

- (a) any application for bail by an accused person;

- (b) the trial of an accused person, other than a trial contemplated in subsection (2); or
- (c) proceedings concerning the imposition of a sentence upon a convicted person, may, if he or she considers it expedient for the administration of justice—

- (i) in the case of proceedings referred to in paragraphs (a) and (c), summon one or two assessors; and
- (ii) in the case of a trial referred to in paragraph (b), summon two assessors, to assist him or her at the proceedings concerned.

(4) (a) In considering whether summoning assessors under subsection (3) would be expedient for the administration of justice, the judicial officer shall take into account—

- (i) the cultural and social environment of the accused person;
- (ii) the educational background of the accused person;
- (iii) the nature and the seriousness of the offence in respect of which the accused person is applying for bail, or stands accused of, or has been convicted;
- (iv) the extent or probable extent of the punishment to which the accused person will be exposed upon conviction, or is exposed, as the case may be;
- (v) the views, if any, of the accused person regarding the summoning of assessors in respect of the proceedings concerned;
- (vi) any particular interest which the community in general, or any specific community, may have in the adjudication of the matter concerned; or
- (vii) any other matter or circumstance which he or she may deem to be indicative of the desirability of summoning an assessor or assessors.

(b) The judicial officer may question the accused person in relation to the matters referred to in paragraph (a), or obtain such information from his or her legal representative.

(5) . . .

(6) Whenever a judicial officer is assisted by assessors at a trial referred to in subsection (2) of (3) (b), the assessors shall only commence with their functions as assessors after the plea in the matter has been recorded.

(7) An assessor shall be a member of the court, subject to the following provisions:

- (a) An assessor shall, at the consideration of a bail application or in determining an appropriate sentence, assist the judicial officer in an advisory capacity only.
- (b) At any trial referred to in subsection (2) or (3) (b)—
 - (i) any matter of law arising for decision at the proceedings concerned; and
 - (ii) any question arising thereat as to whether a matter for decision is a matter of fact or a matter of law,shall be decided by the judicial officer.
- (c) The judicial officer shall adjourn the proceedings regarding any matter or question referred to in paragraph (b) and shall sit alone for the hearing of such proceedings and the decision of such matter or question.
- (d) Whenever the judicial officer makes a decision in terms of paragraph (b) the judicial officer shall give his or her reasons for that decision.
- (e) Upon all matters of fact the finding or decision of the majority of the members of the court shall be the finding or decision of the court.

(8) Whenever a judicial officer is assisted by assessors at a trial referred to in subsection (2) or (3) (b), the judicial officer shall, after the conclusion of the arguments by the prosecutor and the accused person, but before judgment is passed in the matter, explain to the assessors any specific rule of evidence or any other matter that is relevant in respect of the evidence tendered to the court.

(9) The record of any proceedings where a judicial officer has been assisted by assessors—

- (a) regarding the evidence adduced at the proceedings, shall include any explanation or instruction given to the assessors by the judicial officer in respect of any applicable rule of evidence or any other matter; and
- (b) regarding the judgment, shall indicate clearly whether the findings in respect of each material aspect of the evidence—
 - (i) are the unanimous findings of the members of the court; and
 - (ii) in the event of any member of the court making a finding different to that of the other members, set out the reasons for such different finding.

(10) . . .

(11) . . .

(12) (a) A judicial officer assisted by assessors at a trial referred to in subsection (2) or (3) (b), where an accused person is convicted and sentenced, shall—

- (i) if the accused person is not assisted by a legal adviser; and
- (ii) if the judicial officer is of the opinion that the assessors concerned have clearly made an incorrect finding in a material respect which probably led to a wrongful conviction of the accused person, record the reasons for his or her opinion and transmit them, together with the record of the proceedings, to the registrar of the High Court having jurisdiction, and such registrar shall, as soon as is practicable, submit the said reasons and the record to a judge in chambers for review, who shall have the same powers in respect of such proceedings as if the record thereof had been submitted to him or her in terms of section 303 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977).

(b) When a judicial officer acts in terms of paragraph (a), he or she shall inform the accused person accordingly and, if the accused person is in custody, the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, relating to the granting of bail pending an appeal shall be applicable.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (a)—

- (i) shall not be applicable in respect of a matter which is subject to review in terms of section 302 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977; and
- (ii) shall be suspended in respect of an accused person who has appealed against a conviction or sentence and has not abandoned the appeal, and shall cease to apply with reference to such an accused person when judgment on appeal is given.

(Pending amendment: S. 93ter to be substituted by s. 2 of Act No. 67 of 1998 with effect from a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not fixed.)

(Date of commencement to be proclaimed)

93quat. Regulations pertaining to assessors.—(1) The Minister has the power, from time to time, to determine the criteria for the qualification of persons to serve as assessors in terms of section 93ter, including the criteria for the disqualification of persons to serve as such assessors.

(2) The Minister may make regulations regarding—

- (a) the procedure to be followed at, and criteria to be applied for, the designation and registration of persons from the community, who are suitable and available to serve as assessors in terms of section 93ter, on a roll of assessors for each district and regional division;

- (b) the method to be followed in respect of the allocation of assessors in respect of proceedings referred to in section 93ter;
- (c) a code of conduct for such assessors, and mechanisms for the enforcement of the code of conduct, including the liability of an assessor if any provision of the code of conduct is contravened by him or her;
- (d) the establishment of a mechanism to deal with any grievance or complaint by or against an assessor;
- (e) training of assessors;
- (f) the payment of allowances to assessors;
- (g) any other matter which the Minister deems expedient to prescribe in order to regulate the service of assessors in the courts.

(3) Any regulation made under this section which may result in expenditure for the State, shall be made in consultation with the Minister of Finance.

(4) A regulation made under subsection (1) (c) may provide that any person who contravenes a provision thereof or fails to comply therewith shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.

(5) Any regulation made under this section shall be tabled in Parliament before publication thereof in the Gazette.

(Pending amendment: S. 93quat to be inserted by s. 3 of Act No. 67 of 1998 with effect from a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette – date not fixed.)

PART V

CHAPTER XVIII GENERAL AND SUPPLEMENTARY

110. Pronouncements on validity of law or conduct of President.—(1) A court shall not be competent to pronounce on the validity of any law or conduct of the President.

(2) If in any proceedings before a court it is alleged that—

- (a) any law or any conduct of the President is invalid on the grounds of its inconsistency with a provision of the Constitution; or
- (b) any law is invalid on any ground other than its constitutionality, the court shall decide the matter on the assumption that such law or conduct is valid: Provided that the party which alleges that a law or conduct of the President is invalid, may adduce evidence regarding the invalidity of the law or conduct in question.

[S. 110 substituted by s. 20 of Act No. 53 of 1970 and by s. 1 of Act No. 80 of 1997.]

111. Amendment of proceedings.—(1) In any civil proceedings, the court may, at any time before judgment, amend any summons or other document forming part of the record: Provided that no amendment shall be made by which any party other than the party applying for such amendment may (notwithstanding adjournment) be prejudiced in the conduct of his action or defence.

(2) In civil proceedings an amendment may be made upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as the court may judge reasonable.

(3) No misnomer in regard to the name of any person or place shall vitiate any proceedings of the court if the person or place is described as commonly known, and the court may, on application, correct such misnomer at any time before or after judgment is given.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 10 (a) of Act No. 63 of 1976.]

[Sub-s. (4) added by s. 10 (b) of Act No. 63 of 1976 and deleted by s. 4 of Act No. 132 of 1993.]

112. Administration of oath or affirmation.—The oath to be taken by any witness in any civil proceedings in any court shall be administered by the officer presiding at such proceedings or by the clerk of the court (or any person acting in his stead) in the presence of the said officer, or if the witness is to give his evidence through an interpreter, by the said officer through the interpreter or by the interpreter in the said officer's presence.
